Mr. McWhorter's Will.—The will of the late George B. McWhorter was filed in the Register of Wills office Tuesday. It was made May 11th, 1909, and witnessed by W. B. Copper and Samuel Hicks. All his property, real and personal, is left to Hope H. Barroll, Esq., executor, to have and to hold so that his wife, Alice R. McWhorter, may enjoy the income thereof during her natural life or so long as she shall remain his widow. From and after the death or marriage of Mrs. McWhorter it is ordered that all his property shall be converted into cash and the same equally divided among all his children. If any shall die and leave any child or children surviving him or her, then such portion as would have gone to such deceased child shall go to such child or children as may survive him or her.

OUTBUILDINGS BURNED

All the outbuildings on the Merritt farm, owned by Wm. H. Bonwill and tenanted by his son, Raymond, were destroyed by fire Wednesday night. The fire was first discovered by a colored man in the house about 11 o'clock. The alarm was given and all went to saving the stock and horses. Implements, corn and hay were all destroyed. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss on buildings was partly covered by insurance in the Kent Mutual; $425 insurance was held in J. G. Beck's agency; implements were partially covered by insurance in T. Shafer's agency.

WEDDING NOTES.

The wedding of Miss Carolene Marsh Hynson, daughter of Mrs. Richard Dunn Hynson, of Chestertown, and Mr. E. Carroll Stollenwerck, of Balto., will take place on Saturday evening, Nov. 22nd, at Emmanuel P. E. Church Chestertown, Md.

On October 11th, Miss Genevieve Stavely Sutton, of Batimore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Sutton, formerly of Kent county was married to Dr. Edward Murray Riley, of South Carolina. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Holbrook. The bride looked extremely handsome in wisteria brocade, hat and gloves to match. The bride came of one of the oldest families in Kent and will be remembered as an expert horsewoman. The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Riley, a wealthy and prominent family of Anderson. The presents were numerous and costly. The gift from the groom a handsome saddle horse. After an extended wedding tour they will reside at Welch W. Va. where he has an extensive practice.

Miss Gertrude Robertson of Huntington, West Virginia, and Mr. Howard Foster Perkins, formerly of this town, were quietly married at Ashland, Ky., on Thursday, Oct. 16, 1913.

HIGH TIDE AND WIND.

The big wind and tide did considerable damage to boats and property along the water front. Launches and skiffs were torn from their moorings and landed in out of the way places. Dr. Hughes' big launch was wedged under the bridge and finally landed in Lewin W. Wickes' yard. Allen Harris, son of Cashier Allen Harris, undertook to catch his boat by swimming to it and after reaching the boat caught C. W. Kibler's launch and started to harbor. When in the middle of the river his engine stopped and he was carried several miles up the river as far as Buckingham. Water came up in the cellars of homes along the river front but not any serious harm was done.

At the Cliffs, Rock Hall and other points the tide arose to an unusual extent and much loss was entailed by the oystermen.
