Harper Cape Palmas Jan 21. 1840

Dear Sir

I received the letter and the present you sent me. I thank you very much for it. What you tell me in your letter it is in my heart to do to learn the fashion of the American people, to be friend them, and stand by them. I like the present very much you send me. If I live and my country get better I would like very much to come over and see your country. I thank you very much

I am dear friend
Your humble Servt
