MR. FRANK D. LAMB.

The above citizen is one of the most remarkable "young" men of Kent county. He was born on the farm now tenanted by Mr. J. Raymond Bowers in Worton on Nov. 20, 1829, therefore will be 84 years old in a few days. He lived most of his life in Quaker Neck removing to the Thos. Maslin farm when five years old. He married Miss Groves by whom he has three honest, industrious sons and one dutiful daughter. His father was 83 when he died. Mr. Lamb enjoys the best of health and attributes his good health to regular habits—early to bed and early to rise, plenty of good food and an appetite which can enjoy anything that is good. He is well and favorably known about Tolchester on the farm where he now resides. He is a true blue Democrat and has voted the Democratic ticket 63 times without an omission including Tuesday's. His three boys follow in his footsteps. May he live to enjoy many more years of good heaeth.

Married.—At the M. E. Parsonage Chestertown, Nov. 6th, 1913 by Rev. L. E. Barrett D. D. Oscar Deshong, of Kent and Miss Julia L. Capell, of Queen Anne's county.

Announcement.—The wedding of Miss Hallie Roberts Westcott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Westcott, and Mr. Richard Hynson Rogers, is announced to take place on Friday, Nov. 21st, at 12 o'clock noon, at Emmanuel P. E. Church, Chestertown.

Fire.—The Geo. T. Williams home in Worton on the Porter farm was burned Thursday afternoon about 2 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Williams were away from home at the time. The cook was left home with the baby and had gone upstairs to put the child to sleep when she discovered the fire. It is supposed to have caught from a register in the floor of the room. The loss is partially covered by $1500 insurance in the Kent Mutual.

A Worthy Enterprise.—The Town Relief Association, Mrs. Harry B. Rote, president, held a successful supper on Tuesday evening, about $85 being realized. The association has decided to make an effort to establish an Old People's Home in Chestertown, which is indeed a commendable undertaking. It is said that a place is already provided and other encouraging proposals received.

Receivers.—W. W. Beck and Hope M. Barroll, Esqs., were on Tuesday appointed in the United States Court receivers for the assets of Max Cohen, a storekeeper in Chestertown, on Ceoss street, after he had been adjudicated a bankrupt with his consent. The receivers bonded for $2,000 and will act until trustees are selected. The petition was filed by creditors, with claims aggregating $801, through G. W. S. Musgrave, attorney. Mr. Cohen said the cause of the trouble was the suing out of an attachment by one of his creditors last Monday and the closing of his store by the Sheriff of Kent county.

Accidents.—Mr. Wilmer Ford's horse took fright Tuesday on the State road, near Judge C. S. Hill's gate, at a passing motor cycle and threw Mr. Ford heavily to the road. He was knocked unconscious. Mr. Hill assisted the injured man to his home where Dr. Simpers dressed his wounds. Mr. Ford's son came in the afternoon and accompanied his father home. Dr. Simpers does not consider Mr. Ford's injuries serious.

Wm. M. Slay, Esq., has been compelled to use crutches because of an injured limb.

Mr. Thos. White fell and injured his side while at his work in the Chestertown High School recently.

THE first meeting of the "Winter Chautauqua" will be held next Saturday, Nov. 15, in Firemen's Hall, Chestertown, when the Ethel Batting Concert Co will appear in the Fireman's Hall. This Company consist of a very fine harpist, Miss Reed, who is also a soloist, and Miss Batting, who is an entertainer. Tickets for the course of four entertainments are on sale for $1 at both drug stores. Single admission 35 cents.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

The Ladies' Aid of Worton M. E. Church will give an entertainment in Weer's Hall, Kennedyville, SATURDAY EVENING, Nov. 8th, and in Harper's Hall, Still Pond, on SATURDAY, Nov. 15th, at 7.45 p. m., sharp.
The entertainments will consist of a Comedy in three acts, entitled "A Family Affair," and a short farce, entitled "Two Aunts and a Photo." Admission, 25c.; children under 12, 15c. n1-2t
