W. N. E. WICKES & BRO.

HAVE just returned from the city, with their second stock of SPRING and SUMMER GOODS, which with their late stock makes their assortment extensive. The most of our GOODS, were purchased in New York, by one of the most judicious and business men of Baltimore, the balance in Baltimore by one of the firm, who has an extensive knowledge of the business of that city which gives us a decided advantage over any other mercantile house, and with the light expense which we are at in comparison with the high rents of the city we are prepared to furnish goods as low as any establishment in the State. We believe, when the people are convinced that they can buy goods as cheap here as any where else, they will do it, and with this belief we have esatblished our House for the purpose of giving them goods at fair rates. We would rather the public would call and examine our stock and prices than publish them, but as the practice has become so fashionable, we will give a specimen, which is on an average below the market.

For instance those muslins at 7, we make at 6; 8 at 7; 10 at 8; and very stout nearly 6-4 yd. wide at 11½; bleached sheeting and shirting at the same rate; osnaburgs quoted at 9½, we make at 8½ the very best and heaviest twilled Lowell's 13½; burlaps, such as are sold at 16 for 12½, apron checks; domestics and tickings, in like manner; calicoes the finest and hansomest ever offered at 6, 8, 10, 12, 15, 18, 20, 25; balzarines, worth 37½ for 25; lawns a different and superior article from any in the market, at 31, 37, 40, 44; alpachas; gingings; linen; cambric han'kfs, from 12½ to 75; cotton and thread laces and edgings; jaconett, swiss, lace and cambric muslins; ladies grass and corded skirts; do. gloves, elastic top do. 6¼, 12½, 25; and splendid kid of the latest Patish style; superior black, twilled, and french cloth; suspenders, 6¼ up; shawls, plain and embroidered; flannels, (Rogers patent;) stockings 8, 10, 12½, 18, 25, &c.; hats, 10, 12, 15, 25, &c.; glazed caps, 25; children and ladies kid and morocco shoes, 37, 50, 62, 75, (Baltimore made, and no yankee's) American solid head pins, 6¼; and all other articles in our line at these low rates.

Groceries.

Teas, all prices, (the tea drinkers of our town pronounce our dollar tea to be supior to any they ever bot in town.

Coffee all prices, our 8 ct. is equal to any 10 ct. in the market; best Java, only 12½, sugar N. O. 6, 7 and 8, loaf 11½; brown soap, 4½ 5 and 6; mold and dipt. candles, 10 and 12 warranted to stand the hotest weather; crackers, 6¼; molasses 31, best sugar house do. 50; salt 50, per bushel, 1 62 and 1 88 per sack; shot, 6¼; (best port wine and brandy for sickness only;) traces, 18¾ to 20, and every other article in the GROCERY line at these low rates. Discount for goods by the quantity.

☞We will give the highest market price for bacon and all other produce.
