LAMBERT DUY,

IMPORTER AND JOBBER IN FRENCH AND WERT OF ENGLAND

Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings, &c.

No. 108 Market St., South side, between Third and Fourth, sts. Philadelphia, Pa.

WOULD respectfully call the attention of Western and Southern Merchants visiting Philadelphia, to his large, fresh and well selected stock of WOOLEN GOODS, among which will be found a full assortment of French and Wert of England Cloths and Cassimeres, of the finest qualities and most celebrated makes, imported by himself expressly for those dealing in superfine goods. Persons visiting the city with the intention of buying the above goods would do well to call and examine my stock before purchesing elsewhere, as I flatter myself that my goods cannot be surpassed in point of quality in this or any other city.

Taxes and Fees.

ALL PERSONS in arrears to the subscriber for taxes and fees are notified that payment must be made without farther delay. Owing to the scarcity of money, I have at considerable risk and no small vexation, forborne to execute and distress any person, before harvest, but if payment be not speedily made now that harvest is over, I shall most assuredly execute and sell property without distinction of persons who may neglect to pay up; and let it be borne in mind also that accounts shall be paid in full, I cannot and will not after the expiration of the present month take any further excuses, and my Deputies will have written orders to proceed in every instance of delinquency to execute and advertise property. If after my indulgence and the lenity I have heretofore shown, any person shall disregard this warning, they must take the consequences.

Nathan Newnam, Lorenzo Newnam, Sewall Newnam and others.

THE object of the Bill filed in this cause is to sell the Real Estate of Garrett Newnam, late of Kent county, deceased, lying in Queen Ann's county, on the ground that it is too small for division, and that it will be to the interest and advantage of all parties that it should be sold and the proceeds divided.

The Bill states that about the year 1822, Garrett Newnam, of Kent county, died intestate, seized in fee simple of a tract of land in Queen Ann's county, called "William's Lot," containing 50 acres which had been patented in 1721 to Daniel Newnam, and two acres and twelve perches, adjoining the above tract, called "Harris's Rambles," leaving the following children and heirs at law to whom the said lands descended and who were seized in fee thereof, viz: James Newnam who is since deceased, intestate, without issue, Nathan Newnam, Lorenzo Newnam, Sewall Newnam and the said Adelaine Sollaway then Adelaine Newnam, and also a widow named Anna Newnam who intermarried with Daniel Sparklin. That the said Nathan Newnam resides in the State of Pennsylvania, Lorenzo Newnam in the State of Missouri, and Sewall Newnam in the State of Delaware. That the said lands are incapable of division so as to be of advantage to the parties, being too small for division and without buildings, and that it would be to the interest and advantage of all persons concerned that the same should be sold, and the proceeds divided among the persons entitled. It is thereupon

Ordered, That the complainants by causing a copy of this order to be published in some newspaper in the State of Maryland, once in each of three successive weeks before the first day of August next, give notice to the said absent defendants of the substance and objects of the Bill, that they may be warned to appear in this Court in person or by a Solicitor, on or before the fourth day of November next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.
