I have received from Dr. Foulks, with no ordinary feeling of gratification, the subjoined certificate, in reference to a rumor which has been extensively circulated amongst us, with a request for its publication. The respectability alone of the author entitles him to the fullest credence.

If this does not satisfy all that Dr. Foulks is innocent, I will show to any one who will call upon me, other testimonials which I have in my possession, whose authenticity and force, the most skeptical cannot doubt. T. H. WHALAND.

Chester Town, October 11, 1845.

The undersigned hereby certifies that he has known Doctor C. T. Foulks for several years, during which time he never heard Doctor Foulks' moral character impeached until the aforesaid C. T. Foulks was charged with theft last winter in Philadelphia.

The undersigned is well acquainted with the circumstances which led to that charge and the undersigned believes that Dr. Foulks was the innocent subject of a false accusation.
