New Grocery Store.

The subscribers respectfully inform their friends and the public that they have opened a in the house between the residences of Dr. Whaland and the tailors' shop of Mr. S. P. Carroll, on Main street, where they intend keeping a general supply of groceries, which they will sell low for cash.

They request the public to call and examine their stock before making their purchases.

R. D. & J. E. JURNEY.

J. E. JURNEY informs his friends and the public that he continues to carry on the BOOT & SHOE business (in all its branches,) at his old stand. He has on hand men's and boys fine and coarse boots, shoes and brogans, and ladies and misses boots and shoes, of the best quality, which he offers for sale low.

NOTICE.

In consequence of extensive professional engagements, I find it impossible to give personal attention to the settlement of my accounts, I have therefore constituted Charles H. Wickes, Esq. my Agent. Mr. Wickes has kept my books for the last two years, and is perfectly familiar with all the accounts upon my mill and medical books, and will close them all on as amicable terms as possible. Any arrangement made with him will meet my entire approbation.

T. H. WHALAND.
Chester Town, October 11, 1845.

To Rent, for 1846,

Two HOUSES, on Queen street. If desired for a boarding house, they will be connected by doors—they would make the most convenient and commodious boarding house that could be obtained in the Town. The rent will be made low; or they will be sold a bargain. For terms apply to Jas. B. Ricaud, Esq. or to A. W. Sparks, Chester Town.
