Strayed or Stolen

From the subscriber, on Saturday night last, a black HORSE, without any white spot; about 15½ hands high—high hip bones; a small mane, with scarcely any foretop; but a heavy, bushy tail, which he carries on one side when rode under the saddle. He racks and canters well, and goes well in harness; but is spirited and not considered very safe.—A suitable reward will be given on recovery of the horse, or on information being given so that I can recover him. It is believed that he was stolen.

SELECT DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG ADIES.

NO. 1 N. EXETEL STREET, Baltimore,

CONDUCTED BY MISSES KILBURN & HEALEY late of Boston, Mass.

THE course of Instruction in this Seminary is such as is pursued in the best Acadamies in New England. Particular attention is paid to the understanding and talents of the pupils, that their studies be not crowded, and knowledge consequently superficial; but they are increased with sufficient rapidity gradually to strengthen the memory and expand the intellect. Letter Writing, and the regular rules of Composition are carefully taught.

The rules of correct discipline are strictly but mildly enforced. The Tutoresses pay particular attention to the morals and polite deportment of the young ladies entrusted to their care. Lessons in Politeness are given weekly, and practised daily, that their carriage be easy and graceful.

No boarder is allowed to leave the Seminary without special permission, or unaccompanied by one of the teachers: but moderate exercise, taken by daily walks, or amusements at home, is attended to

At the request of parents or guardians, each pupil is allowed to attend public worship at a church of her selection. It is required that each young lady have the articles of her wardrobe marked and numbered. No jewelry or expensive clothing is allowed, as it would occupy too much of the pupil's attention, which should be devoted to the cultivation of the intellect; but perfectly neat and genteel apparel is required.

In order that the Principals may give their undivided attention to the general improvement of the young ladies, the entire charge of the domestic department has been placed under the care of a lady of the highest respectability.

AUCTION SALES

A DESIRABLE FARM for Sale.

THIS FARM is situated on Corsica creek, a branch of Chester River; the creek is navigable for vessels drawing 8 or 9 feet water; affording fish, oysters and wild fowl in their season. Two steam boats stop within a mile of the farm weekly, and three packets sail out of the creek to Baltimore every week.

It is distant from Baltimore 60 miles, and from Centreville, the county town of Queen Ann's county, 4 miles. The farm is believed to contain

239 Acres;

full one half of which is in TIMBER and Wood

—a considerable amount of wood might be disposed of to advantage—there is also an inexhaustable supply of shell marl upon this farm, by the use of which the land may be brought to a state of productiveness unsurpassed by any in that section.

The DWELLING and Out Buildings are all in tolerable good order. A further description of the property is deemed unnecessary, as any one disposed to buy will doubtless visit it.

The Terms of Sale are cash $150; the residue in three equal instalments, to be secured by endorsed notes, payable in 1, 2 and 3 years after date, with interest; the interest to be paid semi-annually.

Proposals will be received until the 20th day of September next; and if not sold before that time, it will be offered at PUBLIC SALE on the 24th; at which time a sale of all the HOUSEHOLD and KITCHEN FURNITURE, together with the STOCK and FARMING UTENSILS of said farm will take place. If a sale of the corn crop can be effected at the same time, possession may be had about the 1st of October.—Address

A FARM FOR SALE.

THE SUBSCRIBER would sell at private sale all that FARM, lying in Worton, in Kent county, called

"HERMITAGE," containing about

130 Acres,

adjoining the lands of Joseph Porter, Esq. William Wroth's heirs, and the Manor.

The Farm is divided into four fields, under tolerable fencing. There is sufficiency of WOOD on the farm, and a ridge of fine growing young Chesnut. Wheat, corn, oats, rye and clover, grow very well on the land. There are from 12 to 15 acres of excellent

MEADOW.

There is a small DWELLING, STABLE and CORN HOUSE on the premises. The price low, and terms easy.

MONEY--MONEY. New Fall GOODS,

AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES.

T. W. ELIASON has just returned from Philadelphia, with a large stock of woollen, cotton, and other foreign and domestic goods, which, owing to the immense stocks forced into the market by the failures of merchants and manufacturers, and to the scarcity of money in the cities, he has purchased for cash at greatly reduced prices—many articles lower than they have ever been sold in his recollection—and below what it cost to make them.

He is, as ever, determined to sell at small profits, for cash or produce, and give the bargains to his customers. He is confident that he now offers greater inducements to the communiy to patronize his establishment than he has ever been able heretofore to offer—and that buyers generally may save in their expenses by giving him a call before they send to Baltimore, or buy elsewhere.

Come and try.
