A CARD.

Mrs. Tilghman, employs this method of conveying her most sincere thanks to those gentlemen, who by their prompt and efficient exertions, prevented the fire from communicating to the roof of her house on the right of the 23d inst. But, for the timely aid afforded by several gentlemen before the arrival of the Engine, and of the subsequent efforts of the Engine company, her house would probably have been consumed.

To Rent.

THE SUBSCRIBER will rent for the ensuing year the farm on which he now lives, lying in Kent county, within 3 miles of Chester Town, and bounded on one side by Chester river, called "Hopewell." This farm contains about 482 acres, is divided into 11 fields of good size; 60 or 70 acres of which is finely set in clover and timothy—50 acres will be in Mediterranean wheat, and all the corn ground to be sown in oats, and from 50 to 60 acres to go in corn.—There are two good brick Dwellings and a Kitchen, in good repair, beside a frame dwelling a few hundred yards from the main buildings; a good barn 50 by 40 feet, with granary and stabling for 10 head of horses, and 14 head of cows; 2 corn houses; a well of fine water, and garden of moderate size.

There has been near 8000 bushels of lime put out within a few years, and 3000 bushels per year will be supplied, to be put out by the tenant, the lime being very convenient. If a good tenant should offer, it is probable it will be for rent four or five years, if not sold.

GREAT BARGAINS IN Fall & Winter GOODS.

COLLINS & HYNSON

HAVE just returned from Philadelphia with a splendid assortment of uncommonly cheap goods, cheaper than they have ever been sold in Chester Town. Mr. Collins has been a merchant for 20 years, and can safely say that he never has seen goods as cheap as they are at this time; for instance, they are selling very handsome calicoes at 5 and 6 cents; very handsome chintzes at 12½ cents, such as generally have been sold at 18¾ and 25 cents; bleached shirtings at 6¼ cents; cassinets 12½, 25, 31½, 37½, 50, 62½ and 75 cents. We have a general assortment of all kinds of goods in the same proportions, such as cloths; cassimeres; cashmeres; mousslines de laine; alpaccas; flannels, plain and twilled; plaids for ladies' cloaks; Canton flannels, bleached and unbleached; checks; domestic plaids; plaid linseys at 10 cents, with a great variety of goods in the dry goods line too tedious to enumerate.

BOOTS and SHOES, HATS, CAPS, COLLARS, BRIDLES, WHIPS, &c. GROCERIES, HARDWARE, CROCKERY, GLASS, TIN, STONE WARE, &c.

Our friends and the public generally are earnestly requested to call and examine our assortment before they buy, as we think they cannot fail to be pleased, and acknowledge that our goods are very cheap. We are determined to sell at small profits, so that buyers may save themselves the trouble of sending to Baltimore.
