POSTSCRIPT

By Sloop Gen. Washington, Capt. Browne

Congress.

John P. Kennedy, Esq., has been nominated for Congress unanimously by the whig convention of the first fifteen wards of Baltimore city. The compliment was well deserved and handsomely bestowed.

It is estimated that thirty thousand baskets of peaches arrive in Philadelphia and are disposed of every day during the height of the season.

☞Gen'l. John G. Chapman has been unanimously renominated for Congress by the Whig convention of his district.

☞No further advices have been received from the seat of war.

AT SARATOGA.—His Excellency, Gov Pratt, of this State, lady and children, are sojourning at Saratoga. The little ones appeared in costume at the grand fancy ball on Friday night.

☞The Secretary of State and the Postmaster General, have returned to Washington from their visit to Old Point.

WHIG MEETINGS.

The Whigs of Kent county are requested to meet in their several election districts on SATURDAY, the twenty-eighth day of August, instant, at three o'clock, P. M., to nominate a candidate for the Legislature in their respective districts, and in the upper district to nominate a candidate for the Levy Court, and in each district to nominate a Committee of Five to meet in Chester Town, on TUESDAY the 31st August, at 11 o'clock, to nominate another member of the Levy Court.

The meeting for the Lower District, will be held at Stone's Spring.

For the Middle at the Court House.

For the Upper at Georgetown X Roads.

The Whigs in the several counties of this State are bringing out their candidates with great harmony and unanimity—they are determined to give a good account of themselves in October, and it becomes the Whigs of Kent county, who have proved their attachment to principles in a series of by-gone contests, to act with the spirit of union, and harmony—to forget all personal preferences and prejudices and to act for the good of their country.

Let the attendance in each district be full—and actuated by the Whig spirit of former years—bring out and support strong men with a zeal and activity corresponding with the importance of the occasion and of the great principles involved in the contest.

HENRY COHEE and THOMAS H. WHALAND, } In Chancery vs } 15th July 1847.
ROBERT BUCHANAN }

THE object of the Bill filed in this cause is to obtain a decree for the sale of the Real Estate of Philip Buchanan for the payment of a mortgage due the complainant Henry Cohee, and the payment of his debts generally, his personal Estate being insufficient for that purpose. The Bill states that the said Philip Buchanan hath departed this life having previously in due form of Law made and executed his last Will and testament, by which he devised his Real Estate to his brother Lawrence Buchanan during his natural life and after his death to the children of his brother James Buchanan. The Bill also states that the said Philip Buchanan at the time of his death was seized and possessed of certain Real Estate lying and being in Kent county, a part of which was conveyed to him by deed by a certain Samuel G. Kennard and the residue was devised to him by the last will and testament of his mother a certain Ann Hackett, That the said Ann Hackett at the time of her death was indebted to a certain Thomas Walker in the sum of $702 87-100 to secure the payment thereof she executed a mortgage upon her real estate, and which mortgage debt remains due and unpaid. That the said Ann Hackett by her said last will and testament devised thirty acres being a part of her real estate to her son James Buchanan, and the residue to her son the said late Philip Buchanan and his heirs upon condition that he should board her son Lawrence Buchanan during his natural life if he should remain in the family, or if he left the family to pay him the sum of fifty dollars annually during his life and also to pay her son Robert Buchanan twenty dollars upon his arrival at the age of twenty-one years, and which said legacies are expressly charged upon the said lands in the hands of the said Philip Buchanan. The Bill also states that Philip Buchanan appointed James B. Ricaud his executor who accepted the trust and bonded before the Orphans Court of Kent county, and that the personal estate of the said Philip Buchanan is insufficient for the payment of his debts. The Bill also states that Robert Buchanan one of the defendants resides out of the State of Maryland.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered that the complainants by causing a copy of this order to be inserted once a week for one month, in some newspaper before the twentieth day of August next, give notice to the said absent defendant of the substance and object of the Bill that he may be warned to appear in this Court in person or by a solicitor on or before the fifteenth day of, December next to shew cause if any he hath why a decree should not be passed as prayed.
