The Baltimore Papers.

We copy to-day, from the Patriot another article on the subject of Conventional Reform and commend it to our readers.—Although requested, the Baltimore papers have not published these articles. The Patriot, is the only paper which has had the moral courage to publish, what the Baltimoreans are opposed to. The Sun, Clipper, and American, we had supposed would act with some sort of fairness to the Eastern Shore—but we have been disappointed. Once get the E. Shore into a convention, and away with all political power. She would be as the lamb at the mercy of the wolf. Give Baltimore city as many representatives as the whole E. Shore and the counties of Prince George's, St. Mary's and Charles added to it, and we should be considered as very clever friends to the city. Baltimore city is opposed to the Stamp law—her people were greatly excited against it, because it touched the 'pocket nerve.' The Stamp law brings in a handsome revenue, and aids in paying the State debt, which was created at the instance of and for the benefit of Baltimore and a few counties lying westward of her. Repeal that law which could easily be done, if she and the upper counties had the representation asked for, and the revenue proving deficient, another tax comes upon the landed interest.—This might answer the purpose of the city, but we are confident that there is no one who has the interest of the Agricultural community at heart, or whose heart beats in the place where an Eastern Shoreman's ought, can sanction or countenance any measure, leading to such a result.

The Election

Will soon be here. Already the parties are preparing for the conflict. Our opponents are making calculations about carrying the State and electing a Senator in the place of Mr. Johnson, but the Whigs are not to be thus caught dosing. They know the importance of the contest, and having elected the gallant old chieftain to the Presidency, they will not leave him in a minority, but will rally around the old hero and sustain him with enthusiastic ardour. All minor differences will be forgotton, and they will come up to the rescue as one man, actuated by one spirit, and for one common purpose.

The following are the candidates nominated, so far, by the two parties, in their respective districts:

FOR CONGRESS.

Whigs.	Locofocos.
1st—Richard J. Bowie.	No nomi'n yet.
2d—Thos. J. McKaig.	W. T. Hamilton.
3d—George W. Gray.	E. Hammond.
4th—John R. Kenly.	R. M. McLane.
5th—Alex. Evans,	S. M. Magraw.
6th—J. Bozman Kerr.	No nomi'n yet.

In the last Congress, the Whigs had four of the six members from Maryland. There is no reason to expect a less favorable result than this at the October election.

Nominations.

The Whig county Convention, which assembled at Centreville on Tuesday last nominated the following ticket: For the Legislature—James Temple, Lloyd Tilghman and Chas. H. Skinner. For the Levy Court—James T. Butler.

THE Whigs of Baltimore have nominated the following gentlemen, for the Legislature: Robert C. Barry, John E. Howard, Daniel Dale, John Coulson and John Watchman.

THE Whigs of Dorchester county, have nominated Daniel M. Henry, Wm. Mace, Dr. A. C. Smith and Jacob Wilson, as their candidates for the Legislature.

The locofocos of Talbot county have nominated the following gentlemen, as candidates for the Legislature—Ed. Lloyd, Jr., I. C. W. Powell and Wm. S Denny, Esq's. Also, for commissioners, Oliver Harrison and Nicholas Willis, Esqrs.

BANK APPOINTMENT.—Mr. Richard Thomas has been appointed Cashier of the Easton Bank, vice Wm. Smythe, removed. Mr. Thomas is an efficient officer and give great satisfaction to the friends of the LATEST FOREIGN NEWS.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER WASHINGTON.

Two days later from Europe.—More Hungarian Victories.—Russians defeat-feated by Dembinski.—Death of Mehe Met Ali.

The steamer Washington arrived at New York at a late hour on Monday night, from Southampton, whence she sailed on the 20th ult., two days after the Caledonia.

There were various and contradictory reports of battles from Hungary. The Hungarians have at length occupied Presburg.

Vienna was protected only by a handful of raw recruits.

The Rusians, by their own acknowledgement, have sustained a defeat in Transylvania, with some loss.

It is also reported that Bem has defeated a force of 30,000 Rusians under Luders, driving it into Wallachia.

A great battle is said to have been fought on the 5th of August, in which the Magyars were defeated. The accounts, though contradictory, are favorable to the Hungarians.

Ledru Rollin has returned to Paris to stand his trial.

The Markets remain as the Caledonia left them.

The Washington brings 186 passengers, including 104 second class, principally Germans, and a large freight.

The letter of Mr. Clayton, the American Minister, to Mr. Breisas; on Hungarian intervention or sympathy, has given much satisfaction in England, and has called forth the applause of influential and crowded meetings in the metropolis and provinces.

The London Times announces the death of Mehemet Ali, which event took place on the 2d of August, at Alexandria. His body was interred on the 4th, in the new abaster mosque built by himself in the citadel.

HUNGARY.

RUMOR OF ANOTHER GREAT BATTLE.

The Breslau Zeitung of the 15th says, that persons who armed in Vienna on that evening, affirmed that a sanguinary engagement had taken place at Groswardein. The Hungarians had there concentrated a body of 80,000 men, including the troops from Klauseuburg. The Diet, by latest accounts, held its sittings in a Church at Groswardein.

MOVEMENTS OF AULICH AND KLAPKA.

The Vienna letters of the 12th confirm the occupation of Raab by the Hungarians and state that they had advanced posts at Hochstrass and Rabot. They had also taken Vesprin (on Lake Balaton) and Papa, (between Vesprin and Raab,) and it was said Gen. Aulich had advanced to Stuhtwissenburg, and had threatened Pesth.—Some hussars had appeared, even within a few leagues of Vienna. The Austrians were hastily collecting an army of 26,000 meu at Presburg, to assume the offensive on the 13th.

The Magyar force in Raab is 18,000 strong. with 18 guns. The Austrians were fortifying Scholossberg, and were constructing entrenchments on the road to Tyrnau. Since the commencement of the war Raab has been occupied alternately eight times.

The affairs of Comorn are in the same state. The Hungarians were threatening Presburg, and had hoisted their colors at Vesprin, Papa, &c.

THE HUNGARIANS IN PRESBURG.

VIENNA IN DANGER.

Vienna is now garrisoned by only a few new levies, and when the post left, Presburg had been occupied by the Hungarians.

ROTHSCHILD DICTATES PEACE.

It is rumored that the split in the Vienna Council is attributable to the influence of the Rothschilds, who will advance the "sinews of war" only on condition of peace with Hungary being agreed upon.

A NEW RUSSIAN GENERAL.

The Emperor of Russia has recalled Brince Woronzoff from the Caucasian war, to assist him in the Hungarian struggle.

RUSIANS DEFEATED IN TRANSYLVANIA.

The following Russian intelligence is given: What, then, must have been the reality if they confess this much?

On the 23d of July the Cithuanian Rifles were attacked in the Pass of Ojtorz by the Magyars and forced to retire. They were reinforced by Gen. Arwnow with four pieces of cannon, but again forced to retire after three hours fighting, in which they lost in killed and wounded 4 officers and 160 privates. The Magyars passed through the Pass.

BEM STILL ALIVE.

Thirty thousand Russians, under Luder, are said to have been completely routed by an inferior force under Bem, and the survivors hunted into Wallachia.—This had caused much sensation in Wallachia.

ROME.

From the Eternal City, we learn that Gen. Oudinot had returned from Gaeta, not very well satisfied with his mission to the holy father The Pope had returned to Rome, but it was said, had consented to go as far as Albano, where the French troops were to go out to meet him. Before entering Rome, the Pope intended to visit Naples, Lorette and Bologne.

The people of Rome in the meantime, dreaded the return of the Pope; not from any real dislike to the holy father himself, (for he was generally beloved in Rome,) but by reason of the fear for the return of the Cardinalr, under whose rule, says the Times, the people will never be calmly obedient again.

In the meantime, the greatest discontent prevailed, and only the presence of the French army prevented a general rising in Rome, and a universal insurrection in the province.

DESPERATE BRAVERY.

TRAPPERS' FIGHT WITH A SIOUX WAR PARTY.

Three trappers, Vale, Cass, and Young says the Jackson County (Iowa) Democrat, while looking for beaver in the vicinity of Morcou river, discovered a large trail, rightly supposing that they were in the vicinity of a strong band of Indians. They selected a suitable spot, and built of logs and poles a small hut, to which they gave the name of a fort. Before it was finished the Indians made their appearance. They showed that they were determined to have their scalps.—Vale and his companions prepared for a desperate resistance. At the first fire of the Indians, Young was shot through the head.—Vale and Cass returned the fire, and three Indians fell, at which they raised the war whoop. The unequal contest lasted several hours, Cass loading the guns while Vale, with onerring aim, thinned their ranks.—Cass imprudently exposed his face and received a ball in the eye. Vale was now left alone o contend against the Indians.—He made the best of it, loaded and fired in such rapid succession that the Indians were on the point of retiring, when he fell morally wounded. The Indians lament his death, they buried him without scalping him, and honor him with the name of Eagle Brave. Twenty-eight Indians were killed in the action. Vale's relatives reside in Milwaukie.

BANK DEFALCATION.—However unpesant the task, we are necessarily compelled, as a public journalists to notice the recent astounding disclosures made in the Bank at this place, by which it appears that Wm. B. Smyth, the late Cashier, was discovered to have embezzled funds to the amount of about $12,000. Eleven thousand of the amount, however, in certificates of deposites in Baltimore, and other paper, have already been refunded, and the balance, we learn, was promised to be made good in a few days.

P. S.—Since the above was in type, we learn that further developments have been made, which has increased the amount to about $16,000. Mr. Smyth was arrested last evening, and held to bail in the sum of $5,000 for a further hearing this morning.—Star of Tuesday.

The testimony before the magistrate on Tuesday was as to induce him to commit Mr. Smyth, in default of bail in the sum of $5,000, to await the action of the Grand Jury.—Easton Gazette.

RUMORED SEIZURE OF SECRET EXPEDITION VESSELS.—The New York Courier, of Tuesday, has the following:

Rumors were current throughout the city yesterday that one or more vessels had been seized by the government authorities for an alleged violation of our neutrality laws, in conveying men and munitions of war, intended to be used for the invasion of Cuba.

We understood that the Union had sailed for some southern port contiguous to Cuba, with a number of men on board, who had been enlisted into this illegal service, and that they were supplied with arms, &c. We did not learn that she had been detained.

It was said, however that another vessel, named the Sea Gull, destined for Curacoa, and heavily laden with guns, powder, &c., had been detained, and that an investigation was going on under the direction of some one of the United States authorities in this city. What was the result of this inquiry, or whether it has been concluded we do not know.

If this report be well founded—though we confess we have it from no official source—it proves that the proclamation of the President was timely and necessary.—Probably more information in regard to the matter will be elicited during the day.

THE PRESIDENT.—Recruited strength enabled the President to leave Erie on Saturday, for Niagara Falls, one account says, "by the way of the Canada shore," while another has it "via Schlosser," which is on the American shore. It was not his intention to make any stop on the way, not even at Buffalo. At the Falls, we understand, he purposes to remain until his health is re-established, when he will proceed at once to Washington, not going to Massachusetts nor visiting the fair at Syracuse.

It is evident that his health has received a rude shock from the fatigues and excitement of his journey.

While the President was staying at Erie, says the New York Express, he received from Washington important dispatches relating to the abduction of Rey, which he was too ill to examine and handed over to the Vice President, who hap pened to be with him.

THE MURDERED APPRENTICE.—The youth McConnell, struck by his fellow apprentice with a smith's tongs on Monday last at Philadelphia, died on Wednesday night at the Hospital. The youthful murderer is named Phillips. He is now in prison, and is represented by his master to be suffering the most poignant remorse, expressing the deepest regret for the act that has prostrated all his hopes of a happy future.

TRINITY SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES,

That our daughters may be of corner stones, polished after the similitude of a palace.—Ps. 144, 12.

Rev. E. M. Van Deusen, Rector of Trinity Church, Visiter.
Miss Henrietta Davis, Principal.
Miss H. S. Gilbert, Associate Principal.
Mrs. Amelia Foote, Teacher of the Piano and Guitar.
Prof. Aug. D'Ouville, Teacher of French, &c.

TRINITY SCHOOL will be re-opened as a boarding and day school on Monday, Sept 3. The entire dwelling at the corner of Market and ninth streets (recently occupied by the Rev. Mr. Chambers,) has been secured for this purpose, and affords unusual facilities for the comfortable accommodation of pupils. The situation commands an uninterrupted view of the Delaware and the adjacent country—is the most elevated in the city—proverbial for its healthfulness and being removed from the business part of the town, is quiet and yet central and convenient. The boarding pupils will be accommodated with well ventilated dormitories, and always under the immediate care of their instructors. They will have all the advantage of home in a christian family; the great design of the instruction being to train up the young in the faith and fear of God, and prepare them to fill their various situations in life, not merely as of and for this world, but living members of Christ's body, the Church, and children of immortality. The government will be based upon religious principles, appeal to the moral sense of the child, and aim to check and control the influence of that corruption of our nature, out of which spring all our sufferings. As uniformity and system in the discipline and instruction are essential to the success of the school, it will be expected that all pupils will conform to its regulations. The Rector of the Church, as visiter, conducts the devotions, and examine the pupils weekly, on Tuesday morning, when parents and others are respectfully invited to be present at 2 o'clock.

The vacations are one week at Christmas, and the month of August.

TERMS.
