A Severe Sickness Leaves The Kidneys Weak

After recovering from a severe spell of sickness some time ago, I was all run down and suffering from poor blood. I would have pains in my back and hips and my kidneys bothered me all the time. I started taking Swamp-Root upon the recommendation of a friend and found it was just what I needed. My blood became all right and after taking a few bottles, I was surprised at the effect it had on my kidneys. They were entirely cured and I have much to be thankful for that your great remedy did for me.

Yours very truly,
W. O. BLACKMON,
Phoenix City, Ala.

Last Sunday evening, June 22, we had our Children's Day services. We were one of the last but can't say we were least as the children and all did very well indeed. Much credit is due Mrs. Walter Hadley for her efforts in training the children.

The following programme was rendered: Singing by school; prayer, pastor; singing, by school; Greetings, Primary Class; Children's Day by 5 boys; recitation, Marian Dempsey; singing, school; Rec., Walter Hadley; Rec. and Chorus, Singing Flowers; recitation, Nellie Dempsey; solo, by Helen Vansant; Rec., Birth of Children's Day, by Bertha Powell; singing by school; recitation, Hattie Galloway; The Flower Garden, class of girls; recitation, Anna Vansant; recitation and chorus, A Sinning Day; solo by Mr. Muldoon; recitation, Your Share, by Jennie Merchant; address by pastor; collection, singing, benediction; singing by school; recitation and chorus, Temple Builders; Miss Zera Whitaker and Mr. Zeimueman gave us some fine music on violins, Mrs. Etta Hicks was organist.

Last Thursday evening quite a pleasant time was spent on the School house green. Mrs. Evelyn Harris lectured on "How to Raise Healthy Babies"; Then Rev. S. S. Hepburn gave a talk to the grangers on cattle, wool, etc. Miss Ada Hurlock gave us a good recitation and Mrs. Harris a solo, "No Sir, No." Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served free.

Miss Emma Redburn, of Baltimore, is visiting Miss Mary Mulford.

Mrs. C. W. Moore has company visiting her from Baltimore.

The wedding of Miss Edith Caldwell to Mr. William C. Dempsey took place at the bride's home June 26 at 1 o'clock.

Quite a severe storm struck this town last Saturday about 5 o'clock. The lightning struck a tree in Mr. Holt Woodall's yard and several trees had the tops twisted and torn, we also had a very heavy rain.

Our pastor is going to preach a series of sermons on "The Second Coming of Christ" beginning with next Sunday. A good attendance is requested at these services.

Mrs. Foolish—"Well, I may be tired out, but I have the satisfaction of knowing I never slight anything. My clothes are boiled and rubbed good and hard every week — no dirt left in them, I can tell you."

Anty Drudge—"Yes, you look tired, and, more than that, there's something you do slight. That's the sensible, easy, best way to wash clothes clean without wearing them out. Fels-Naptha Soap is the cure for you."

Stop thinking the hard way is the right way to do your housework. The right way is the cool-water, no-hard-rubbing Fels-Naptha way, and it's easy.

Go buy a cake of Fels-Naptha Soap. Follow the directions, and you won't dread washday any more. Your clothes will last longer and look better, because they're not boiled and rubbed to shreds. And you won't be tired to death, either.

Easy directions on the red and green wrapper.
