MR. CLAY AND THE TEXANS.—The Brownsville (Texas) Sentinel contains a letter from Mr. Clay, in reply to one from Messrs. Fauntleroy, Hastings and Disgan, of that place, expressing approbation of his career and services. Mr Clay says:—

Drawing, as my life is to a close, it is highly consoling and gratifying to me to know that, when I go, I shall leave behind me the friendly and favorable opinion of many of my countrymen, residing in all parts of our common country.

With respect to the measures of compromise brought forward at the last session of Congress to which you allude, I was anxious for their adoption, and indifferent whether that was done by seperate bills or by one general bill. Finally they all did pass, and substantially as originally proposed. It afforded me satisfaction to be able to concur in such liberal proposals to Texas, as it does to find that, true to her own interests and to the Union, she has acceded to them by such a large and decisive majority.

I cling to the hope that the measures of compromise will ultimate tranquilize the country. On the surface of public affairs here all at present is smooth and quiet, nor do I believe, on the only subject which now produces excitement any where, (the fugitive slave bill,) will agitators be able to effect any thing, or to disturb the deliberations of Congress.

THE WESTERN STATES. The following is the census returns of the Western States, shewing an increase of 2,615,000 since 1840:

States.	1850.	1840.
Ohio,	1,983 000	1,519,000
Michigan,	397,000	177,000
Kentuckey,	993,000	177 000
Indiana,	988 000	685,000
Illinois,	800,000	476,000
Wisconsin,	305 000	30,000
Iowa,	192,000	43,000
Missouri,	681,000	383 900
Arkansas,	198,000	97 000
Tennessee,	1,069 000	829 000
Aggregate,	7,606,000	4 991 000

THE MORMONS AT BEVER ISLAND are said to be combined in a resistance to the execution of the Laws of Michigan against their leader, Strang, who has made himself obnoxious to them. The Detroit Advertiser says, respecting this matter:—

It is well known that the vote of Beaver Island was given almost en masse for the Locofoco ticket at the late election, and as we are informed and believe, under the influence, and by the instrumentality of the discreet Strang, who attended the polls and incited to illegal voting, by threatening all who should challenge Mormon votes with death. We give the Locofocos of Michigan joy of their new accession of strength, and extend our congratulations particularly to those of the Third Congressional District, as the great results of King James's release from prison were mainly realized by them.

GENERAL SCOTT IN OHIO.—The friends of General Scott, in Butler county, Ohio, held a meeting recently, and nominated him as their candidate for the Presidency. The following resolutions were also unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That General Winfield Scott is worthy of the highest honors a nation's gratitude can bestow, and will be our first choice for President of the United States in 1852.

Resolved, That the first choice of this meeting for Vice President in 1852, is ex-governor Jones, of Tennesee.

DISCHARGED.—The hearing of the case of the negro woman, Tamor Williams, claimed as the slave of W. J. Purnell, of Worcester county Maryland, was continued on Saturday, at Philadelphia. The race occupied the entire. Judge Kane, upon a review of the testimony on the part of the claimant, as to the identity of the alleged fugitive, deemed it insufficient, and ordered the discharge of the prisoner.

General Quitman has arrived in New Orleans, in custody of a United States Marshall, to stand his trial on the charge of being connected with the Cuban expedition and invasion. The General previous to his arrest, resigned his office as Governor, of Mississippi, thus evading a practical decision of the question, whether the executive head of a sovereign State can be arrested on a process issued out of a U. S. Court.

RHODE ISLAND SENATOR.—A letter from a democrat at Providence, to the New York Herald says: There can be no question but what Gen. James is a thorough whig. In his letter shown to the sixteen whigs, and since seen by scores of people, he declares himself a "whig," a "friend to whig measures," and "particularly a protective tariff." He has for the last ten or twelve years voted the whig ticket; and those who are most intimate with him, understand any one calling Gen. James a democrat. Our Legislature has not adjourned. It is now in session, and will be for a fortnight longer; so that if there is any "mistake" in decaring Gen. J. the Senator elect, it is in their power to correct it.

☞Thos. Knight, jr., for killing Hughes at Macon, Georgia, has been sentenced to four years in the penitentiary.

☞Senator Foote is to be the orator of the great Union festival to be held in New York on the anniversary of Washington's birth day.

☞GENERAL SCOTT.—The Whigs of the Indiana Convention have reccommended Gen. Scott as the Whig candidate for the Presidency,

MRS. PARTINGTON'S LAST.—Reading the newspaper praises of Jenny Lind'e benevolent disposition, Mrs. Partington came to the complimntary expression in regard to the 'fellow felling in her bosom,' which the Sweedish Nightingale cherished towards the unfortunate and needy. Involuntarily raising her spectacles and looking the very personification of amazement the good old lady repeated 'A feller feeling in her bosom! la me if that ain't just the way the fellers used to do when I was a girl!'

PRENTICE, of the Louisville Journal, in a "first rate notice" of J. K. Paulding, says that "he is the most grandmotherish of all the petticated old humbugs that have yet straddled into the field of Ammerican letters."

The Post Master General has appointed Ezekiel Jackson, Postmaster at Bay Hundred, in Talbot county, vice S. S. Ridgaway resigned.

Died.

On Friday the 7th inst., at the residence of his father, on Kennard's Point, David H. Gemmill, in the 19th year of his age.

The death of this amiable and promising young man, has cast a gloom over the whole community in which he resided. To his father the loss is irreparable, and to his friends and associates the sudden and unexpected event should impress upon their minds the importance of the Scripture: "Be ye also ready, for you know not the day nor the hour when in wherein the son of man cometh."

Adieu, departed friend, adieu,
Mem'ry shall oft remind of thee,
And dreams shall bring the back to view,
With all thy virtuous harmony.

The Best Mechanical Paper in the World!

SIXTH VOLUME OF THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.

The publishers of the Scientific American respectfully give notice that the Sixth Volume of this valuable journal, commenced on the 21st of September last. The character of the Scientific American is too well known throughout the country to require a detailed account of the various subjects discussed through its columns.

It enjoys a more extensive and influential circulation than any other journal of its class in America.

It is published weekly, as heretofore in Quarto Form, on fine paper, affording, at the end of the year, an Illustrated Encyclopedia, of over Four Hundred Pages, with an Index, and from Five to Six Hundred Original Engravings, described by letters of reference; besides a vast amount of practical information concerning the progress of Scientific and Mechanical Improvements, Chemistry, Civil Engineering, Manufacturing in its various branches, Architecture, Masonry, Botany,—in short, it embraces the entire range of the Arts and Sciences.

It also possesses an original feature not found in any other weekly journal in the country, viz., an Official List of Patent Claims, prepared expressly for its columns at the Patent Office,—thus constituting it the "American Repertory of Inventions."

TERMS—$2 a-year; $1 for six months.

All letters must be Post Paid and directed to MUNN & CO,
Publishers of the Scientific American,
128 Fulton street, New York.

PICTORIAL LIFE & ADVENTURES
OF
GUY FAWKES,
The Chief of the Gunpowder Treason,

BY WILLIAM HARRISON AINSWORTH,

AUTHOR of "The Pictorial Life and Adventures of Jack Sheppard," "The Tower of London," "Life of Dick Turpin," "Old St. Paul's," &c., &c. Complete in one large octavo volume of 212 pages—Price Fifty cents. Embellished with 24 full page, spirited illustrations, designed and engraved in the finest style of art, by George Cruikshank, Esq, of London.

This Edition of the work contains every word of the complete English Edition, unabridged, and all the illustrations entire, of the same size, and fac-simile with the London Illustrated Edition, published in London, in three large octavo volumes, and which sells in Europe at Five Dollars a copy. It is the only complete and unabbridged edition of the Life and Adventures of Guy Fawkes ever published in the United States. It has been got up by the publisher at an immense cost, the engravings alone having cost several hundred dollars.

It is one of the most interesting and absorbing works ever written, and it lays bare in bold relief one of the worst conspiracies ever planned and encocted in the known world. It will be read and re-read with pleasure and satisfaction by every one, and our advice is to all, if you want to get the worth of your money, to send and get this work. It is Ainsworth's best book, no one will ever regret buying it.

Copies of the above valuable and interesting work will be sent to any one on receipt of remittances addressed to the Publisher.
