MUMMAS' PATENT CORN SHELLER.

Manufactured by I. J. HECKART Port Deposit, Md

THOS. W. SIMMONS, MAKER.

HAVING purchased the right for Cecil and Kent counties, the undersigned offers this valuable Corn Sheller to the Farmers, confident that they will find it superior to any now in use. As an evidence of its superiority, he would state that it took the first premium at the Agricultural Fair, held at Baltimore, last fall. It is equally adapted to hand or horse power, and will shell from four to eight hundred bushels per day, breaking fewer grains and shelling cleaner than any other machine, separating the cob from the corn.
