SATURDAY, APRIL 25, 1914.

IN another column will be found the report of the Commissioners of Chestertown. It is a good showing and evidences excellent management.

EVERY criminal case but one tried at the April Term of Court was for petty offenses by young colored men. Such cases could be disposed of by local justice. Why not? Will the Home Rule amendment remedy this also.

DON'T forget the Town election Monday. The candidates are Mr. George R. Rouse, a competent, affable and popular citizen and Mr. Wm. S. Carroll, a present incumbent who has held the place for nine years. The vote on bonding the town and change in Water Board tenure will also be considered. Full particulars of law on another page.

THE Governor signed the Purse Net Bill to the delight of many watermen of Kent. He vetoed the traction engine bill to the displeasure of many farmers and enginemen.

Another bill that failed of approval was Senator Hammond's bill postponing a general registration in the counties, which under State law must be held this year, until 1918. There has been no general registration in the counties since 1896. The Democrats have contended that a new registration was unnecessary and burdensome to the voters and that the revision of the lists was all that was necessary. The Republicans have claimed that many names were on the list that should not be there. At any rate, the Legislatures have been postponing the new registration from time to time. The effect of the veto is that there will be an entirely new registration in the counties this year.

WAR HAS BEGUN.

However we may differ as to causes, policies, etc., war has begun and we are heartily with our President. The stubborn, President Huerta to salute the U. S. flag has resulted in American soldiers being landed at Vera Cruz and seizure of the custom house when four soldiers were killed and 20 wounded. American blood has been uselessly shed and the gravest consequences no man can truthfully tell. It is astonishing the evil effects a bad man can bring upon a civilized world when backed by ill-gotten power and selfishness. Torn asunder by revolt in his own country, Huerta defies the powerful navy and army of the United States in a most inhuman manner. The time for mere words has passed. Action, strenuous and immediate action, is our duty.

The situation to the south of us has reached the point to which thoughtful people have for many months felt it must attain. Overwhelmed by hordes of so-called soldiers, a condition has been such that humanity demanded that stronger and better people must eventually take the action which would lead to better things. The position of the United States has made it imperative that it should inaugurate this action, and sooner or later it must have taken the initiative or fail in its duty.

The Christian people of the nation will be glad that our rulers dealt patiently with the land of Mexico, and even now, have no quarrel with the masses of its people. Every possible effort was made to avert war, President Wilson and Secretary Bryan going even to a length which appeared to be weakness to some persons both in this country and abroad. In this, they did nothing but what duty to God and humanity demanded, and we can all enter upon this war with better heart, feeling that those in power did all they could to avert it, and only consented when compelled by imperative duty.

SEVEN Marylanders were in the landing party of marines when Vera Cruz was captured. All but two of them were in the advance guards and participated in the fighting along the water front and around the American Consulate. Among them were Capt. C. T. Wescott, Jr., of Chestertown, First Lieutenant J. A. Emory, of Centerville.

First Lieutenant John R. Emory, of Centerville, was appointed from civil life to the Marine Corps in 1907. He spent some time at Pensacola, Fla., and was then ordered to the Marine Barracks at Annapolis, where he remained until a few months ago when he was assigned to his present duty.

Captain C. T. Westcott is a son of the late Charles T. Westcott, a former state senator and one of the organizers of the International Trust Company. Captain Westcott has been in the service for about 10 years and has seen service in all parts of the globe and was at one time stationed in the Philippine Islands. He was in Chestertown over a month ago to attend the funeral of his mother.

He has been stationed on the cruiser Maryland all winter, this ship lying off the West Coast of Mexico since that time.

LIQUOR LAW IN EFFECT MAY 1

It shall be unlawful for any firm, corporation, partnership, club or association to have shipped into Caroline, Talbot, Queen Annes, Dorchester, Somerset, Kent, Worchester, Wicomico or Cecil counties any spirituous, vinous, fermented, malt, or intoxicating liquors, or any mixture containing alcohol for beverage purposes, in any quantity not to exceed one gallon in any one calendar month, or any malt liquors in quantity not to exceed six dozen pint bottles, or one-eighth of a barrel in any calendar month, such liquors to be for the personal use only of such persons, but they cannot have shipped to them both the malt liquor and the spirituous liquor in the same calendar month. A fine of not less than $10 or more than $50 is made for the offense and for each additional offense not less than $50 nor more than $100 and a term of six months in the House of Correction.

All public carriers must make a monthly report to the sheriff and to the clerk of the court showing all shipments made during the month, and to whom shipped. The list must be filed with the clerk of the court and will be open for public inspection in the clerk's office.

It is unlawful for railroad compaines, steamboat compaines, or other common carrier to convey malt or spirituous liquors in violation of this law, and the consignee and consignor will each have to sign a record of each shipment made and received.

Justices of peace have the power to sentence under the Act, but the party brought before them for trial has the right to demand a jury trial.

TRUSTEES' SALE

—OF—

Valuable Farm Land

In Kent and Cecil Counties, Maryland.

UNDER and by virtue of the authority contained in a decree of the Circuit Court for Cecil County, Maryland, in Equity, the undersigned, Trustees therein named, will offer at public sale at the Court House Door, in Chestertown, Maryland, at 12 O'CLOCK M., on the four following tracts of HIGHLY CULTIVATED FARM LAND:

SATURDAY, APRIL 25th, 1914,

TRACT NO. 1

All that tract of land situate near Black Station, Kent county, Maryland, now tenanted by Mr. Charles E. Faulkner, and containing 288¼ Acres of Land, More or Less,

It being the same tract of land which is secondly described in a deed from David C. Blackiston and others to Elizabeth G. Constable, dated April 27, 1875, and recorded in Liber D. C. B., No. 1 folio 317, etc., one of the Land Record Books of Kent county. It is improved by a good substantial BRICK AND FRAME DWELLING HOUSE in good repair, together with all the outbuildings found on a modern farm. Every foot of this land is tillable and has been recently limed. This is one of the most attractive and productive farms in the State of Maryland. It is situated about half way between Black and Lambson Stations, on the Chestertown Branch of the Delaware Railroad.

TRACT NO. 2

All that tract of land adjoining the farm described as Tract No. 1, tenanted by George C. Johnston, and containing

180 Acres, 1 Rood and 24 Perches

OF LAND, more or less; it being the same tract of land which is first described in the deed mentioned in Tract No. 1. It is improved by a FRAME DWELLING HOUSE, together with the usual outbuildings. This farm has also recently been limed and every foot of it also is tillable. It is the same high-grade farming land as the above tract and is surpassed by none in productiveness.

TRACT NO. 3

All that tract of land situate on the public road leading from Locust Grove to Black Station and tenanted by Cornelius Jarvis, containing

230 Acres of Land, More or Less,

It being the same tract of land which is first described in a deed from Maria G. Knight and others to Elizabeth G. Constable, dated the 23rd day of January, 1904, and recorded in Liber J. T. D. No. 9, folio 40, etc., one of the Land Record Books of Kent county. The improvements consist of a FRAME DWELLING HOUSE in good repair, together with the usual outbuildings. This farm, like the others, is in a high state of cultivation, and is very productive.

TRACT NO. 4

All that tract of land situate on the public road at the corner of A. C. Nowland's land, containing

56 Acres, 3 Roods & 16 Sq. Perches

OF LAND, more or less; there are no improvements on this tract but it is tilled as a part of Tract No. 3 by Mr. Jarvis, and is separated by land of others from the main tract. The above two tracts, Nos. 3 and 4, will be first offered separately and the bids thereon reserved, and then as an entirety; and the sale will be made in whichever manner produces the most money.

No one can make a mistake in purchasing any of these farms either for investment or homes. They have been owned in one family for seventy years or more and have always been kept in a high state of cultivation. They are convenient to schools, churches, etc., and to shipping points on the railroads.

UNDER and by virtue of the same decree as above, the undersigned Trustees will offer at public sale at the Court House Door, in Elkton, Maryland, on MONDAY, APRIL 27th, 1914,

AT 11 O'CLOCK A. M.,

ALL THAT TRACT OF LAND situate in the First Election District of Cecil county, known as the "BEACH," and containing

479 Acres of Land, More or Less

It being the same tract of land which was conveyed unto Elizabeth G. Constable, by Maria G Knight and others, by their deed dated the 14th day of December, 1903, and recorded in Liber J. G. W. No. 14, folio 476, etc., one of the Land Record Books of Cecil county. The improvements consist of a FRAME DWELLING HOUSE, one Frame Tenant House and the usual outbuildings, all in good condition. This farm is located at the junction of the Chesapeake Bay and Elk River and has about a mile of water front, on which there are valuable deposits of sand, from which was sold, without any impairment, $2,500 worth, used for building the McCall's Ferry Dam. There is also a valuable fishery on the property. The land is easy to to till and is in a high state of cultivation.

The landlord's share of the growing wheat crop will go to the purchaser of each of the above tracts upon the purchaser paying for the landlord's half of the fertilizer used thereon.

This is an excellent opportunity for intending purchasers of real estate to acquire some valuable land, for this is to be a positive sale made necessary for closing the estate of Elizabeth G. Constable, deceased.

TERMS OF SALE, as provided by the decree are: One-third of the purchase price on the day of sale, the balance upon ratification of sale, the credit portion to bear interest from the day of sale, and to be secured to the satisfaction of the Trustees. Cost of conveyances to be paid by the purchasers.
