141 A. On the first day of the term, the Judge, or Judges, present shall designate one person from the forty-eight names drawn as aforesaid to be Foreman of the Grand Jury and, after selecting the Foreman and causing all drawers in the Jury box to be emptied, the forty-seven names of those remaining of those drawn as Jurors as aforesaid, shall be deposited in the drawers from which they were drawn respectively, and the Clerk of the Court, in its presence, shall draw them therefrom, beginning with draw number one and taking one name out and recording it and then taking one name from each of the other drawers successively, in the numerical order of the drawers, and recording each name as drawn, and repeating the process until all the names shall have been drawn out and recorded; the first twenty-two persons whose names are so drawn, together with the Foreman previously selected as aforesaid, shall constitute the Grand Jury and the remaining twenty-five shall constitute the Petit Jury, for said term of Court. As soon as the Grand Jury and Petit Juries have been drawn, the other ballots which were placed in the box at the time the forty-eight persons were drawn to serve as Jurors, shall be returned to the respective drawers in which they were originally placed for further use in drawing any additional Jurors needed to fill vacancies.

142 A. Whenever a vacancy shall occur in the position of Foreman of the Grand Jury, either temporary or permanent, caused by sickness, death, absence, or by permission of the Court, the Court shall appoint some other member of the Grand Jury to be Foreman thereof during such vacancy. If for any reason any person or persons drawn as a Grand Juror shall fail to attend the session on the first day thereof and answer to his name at the end of the drawing, or be disqualified, or be excused for cause, the Court shall forthwith proceed to fill such vacancy or vacancies from the remaining number of twenty five names of those who are present, in the order in which their names were drawn from the election district or districts in which such vacancy occurs, but if there be no names or persons, or an inadequate number of them, left in the drawer for the district where the vacancy occurs, the Court may fill such vacancies by drawing the lacking number or persons in any district from those of the other districts. All vacancies in the Petit Jury caused by drawing to fill vacancies in the Grand Jury, or otherwise may be filled by drawing the necessary number of names from the ballots replaced in the drawers aforesaid, from the districts in which such vacancies occur; or such vacancies may remain unfilled, if the Court deem it unnecessary to fill the same.

143 A. The Court shall have the same power to compel the attendance of Jurors, and shall proceed in all other matters relating to Jurors not provided for in this Act, as under the Public General Laws relating to Jurors.

KENNEDYVILLE

The entertainment Saturday night was a great success. Miss Loud and her assistants are to be congratulated upon the fine baby and chicken show.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bennett entertained in fine style Friday evening in celebration of Mrs. Bennett's birthday.

Many of our farmers have begun to sigh for the creamery now that milk prices continue to go down.

Mrs. John McCabe is spending this week as the guest of her parents, near Whaleyville, Md.

Quite a building boom has struck Kennedyville. Mr. James Weer, Jr. will have a home erected as soon as the lumber can be placed upon the ground. Workmen are now busy digging a well on his lot. Mr. Leonard Pennington is building a large warehouse, and anticipates putting up a residence in the near future. Mr. George Roeder has purchased a lot from Dr. J. W. Urie and will erect a residence. Work is expected to begin on this about the 15th of this month.

The war with Mexico outdone! Home Rule for Ireland put in the shade! The "Panama Canal Tolls" relegated to the insignificant! Great excitement in Kennedyville, Md! All the people dizzy! Mrs. Clews, wife of the Presbyterian minister, has given birth to twin boys! The mother and boys are doing well and the father feels himself the only real man in town.

Mothers Day will be observed in the Presbyterian churches of Georgetown, Kennedyville and Worton next Sunday. All parts of service will be appropriate. Special music at Kennedyville.

The hours of service are now Georgetown 10:30; Kennedyville 3 oclock; Worton 7:30. Everybody welcome.

The contractors Stavely & Bowers are about to commence work on the Manse at Kennedyville.

The averages of the pupils of Sassafras school for the month of April are as follows:

THE American says, "There will be two Birds who will not make the trip. They are Billy Morrisette and Frank Jarman, the big Eastern Shoreman. Morrisette failed to show any real class after the training trip and as a result he will spend the season with the Raleigh team of the Carolina Association. Jarman needs more experience, and Manager Dunn thought it would be best for him to spend some time in the Tri-State League, so he was shipped to Pete Cassidy's Wilmington club.
