ALFALFA The Profitable Hay Crop

Yields Four to Six Cuttings a Year of Easily Cured and Most Nutritious Hay Wonderful Increases in Yield Each Successive Year.

ALFALFA "GOLD" BRAND

"Tis long, branching roots penetrate far down, push and crowd the earth this way and that, and thus constitute a gigantic subsoiler. These become an immense magazine of fertility. As soon as cut, they begin to decay and liberate the vast reservoir of fertilizing matter below the plow, to be drawn upon by other crops for years to come."

Alfalfa seed sown during August or September will yield four to six cuttings next season. Frequent cuttings thicken out the stalk and makes it stool out and grow of better.

Alfalfa ranks higher than Timothy in feeding value. In fact, it might be termed both corn and hay, as it is almost a complete food. Experiment stations place the feeding value of Alfalfa hay at $20 per ton, as against Timothy hay at $12 per ton. This, with the fact that Alfalfa will easily yield, on good land, 6 to 16 tons of splendid hay per year, shows what a valuable crop it is. Lands in the Western States that are well set in Alfalfa sell readily at from $100 to $200 per acre. The acreage of Alfalfa is increasing very largely all over the Middle and Southern States; our farmers are fast beginning to realize what a valuable crop it is. Alfalfa will succeed and do well on any good loamy, well-drained soil, but the land must be well and thoroughly prepared for best results.

It should never be used for pasture; it is too valuable as a hay producer to risk injury from stock. A heavy application of lime is of decided benefit—2,000 to 5,000 pounds per acre. Alfalfa is usually sown broadcast at the rate of 20 to 30 pounds to the acre. Our Alfalfa seed is the highest grade, strong germinating seed of the best and cleanest quality possible to procure.

We offer American Dry Land Non-Irrigated Alfalfa Seed, Bolgiano's "Gold" Brand Fancy, 99.78 per cent. pure.

If you want the best field seeds of any kind, always insist on getting Bolgiano's "Gold" Brand Standard Clovers and Grasses. Cow Peas, Winter Vetch, Timothy Seed, Red Clover, Crimson Clover, Alsike, Red Top or Herds Grass, Orchard Grass, Winter Oats, Tall Meadow Oats Grass, Millet, Permanent Pasture Mixture, Dwarf Essex Rape, all varieties of Turnip Seed, including Cow Horn, Southern Seven Top, Yellow Globe, etc.; Cabbage, Kale, Spinach, Winter Radish. $2. Just That! And No More

Two dollars! What do they mean to you?
Ball game? Concert? Dinner or two?
Spent in a minute, forgot in a day;
That may be yours, but it's not my way.
Money don't come so quick to me
That I can spend it fast and free;
I want the worth of every cent,
And that's the cause of my intent
To go to the Chautauqua.

Two dollars there means good six days
Of pleasure in a dozen ways—
Lectures, concerts, picture shows,
Reading, solos, goodness knows,
Just what all there'll be to see
And hear. But you can count on me
To be there three times every day—
Two dollars covers all I pay
To go to the Chaotauqua.

DAVIS.—In sad but loving remembrance of my dear father, George W. Davis, who departed this life, July 29th, 1914.

Oft I wander to the graveyard,
To place flowers with gentle care
On the grave of my dear father,
Who is sleeping sweetly there.

I do not know the pains my father bore,
I did not see him die;
I only know my father went away
And never said good-bye.
Loved in life, in death remembered.

BY HIS SON, FRANK.

WOMEN WHO ARE ALWAYS TIRED

May Find Help in This Letter.

Swan Creek, Mich.—"I cannot speak too highly of your medicine. When through neglect or overwork I get run down and my appetite is poor and I have that weak, languid, always tired feeling, I get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it builds me up, gives me strength, and restores me to perfect health again. It is truly a great blessing to women, and I cannot speak too highly of it. I take pleasure in recommending it to others."—Mrs. ANNIE CAMERON, R.F.D., No. 1, Swan Creek, Michigan.

Another Sufferer Relieved.

I try to impress upon the minds of all ailing women I meet the benefits they can derive from your medicine."—Mrs. CHARLES ROWE, R. F. D., No. 1, Hebron, Maine.
