[Election, Wednesday 5th November.]

WE are authorized by the friends of the Hon. Philemon B. Hopper, to announce, that if elected, he will serve as Circuit Court Judge of the Seventh Judicial Circuit of this State.

Oct'r 15, 1851.

Judicial Nomination.

It will be seen by reference to another column that the convention in Easton nominated Judge Eccleston for the Court of Appeals Bench. The whole contest has been an amicable one, among friends, and should leave no trace behind, except the consciousness that the advocates of of the respective candidates, used every honorable effort to carry their point, and as but one section could succeed the same degree of zeal and industry, should be transferred to securing the election of the nominee on the 5th November next. Of Judge E., it is unnecessary for us to speak, he is known to the people of the county, and as his opponent Judge Tingle, hails as a Whig, let the good people of Kent take good care that one of her own citizens, shall wear the honor, in preference to an entire stranger.

The Election.

The November election for County and State officers will take place next Wednesday week, and we would therefore urge upon the Whigs of the County the necessity of increased industry and activity. The Ticket is a good one, and should secure the united support of the party. In a late contest, our County has proved herself Whig to the core, despite the predictions of our adversaries. We should therefore not be content to elect every man upon the ticket, but resolve to give each the regular, and triumphant Whig majority. This can be done if each Whig is true to himself and to the party, and it ought to be done.

☞ We are requested to say that James B. Ricaud Esq., will be supported at the ensuing election, as an Independent Candidate for Judge of the Circuit Court, for the seventh Judicial district.

CAROLINE COUNTY COURT.—In this court last week, Wm. Auls was convicted of an assault upon Daniel Stevens, and sentenced to pay a fine of $1, and be imprisoned one year in jail. Wash Clark, negro, was convicted of an outrage on the Judicial Convention.

This Convention assembled in Easton on Satuaday the 18th and organized by calling Gen'l TENCH TILGHMAN of Talbot to the chair, and appointing IRVING SPENCE, Esq., of Worcester, Secretary.

The following delegates were found to be in attendance:

From Kent—Hon. J. A. Pearce, Edward Boyer and Edward Wilkins, Esqs.

From Q. Anns—D. H. Crane, S. J. Bradley, J. Wooters, Esq

From Caroline—D Orrell, Willis Charles and L. Neal, Esqs

From Talbot—Gen. T. Tilghman, Allen M. Goldsborough and G. A. Skinner Eqrs.

From Dorchester—Col. W. A. Sullivan, S R. Vinton, Josiah Baily and Rider Henry Eqrs.

From Worcester—G W. P. Smith Esq Dr. Wm. Rowdion, Irving Spence and D. P. Russell Esqrs.

The Hon. J A. Pearce nominated Judge Chambers for the Court of Appeals from the Eastern Shore District—and Josiah Bailey, Esq. of Dorchester nominated Judge Eccleston for the same post—when it appeared that the vote stood 6 for the former (Kent and Talbot) and 14 for the latter—(Caroline, Dorchester, Worcester and Queen Ann's.) Cecil and Somerset was not represented, but it is understood, that if present their votes would have been divided.

On motion of the Hon. J. A. Pearce the nomination was made unanimous. The best feeling prevail among the members—and the proceedings were conducted in great hormony.

☞ Let the Queen Ann's Locofoco Candidate for the Legislature, speak—and "listen that you may the better hear;"

"Fam'd be his tutor, and his part of nature, Thrice fam'd beyond all erudition."

"My Fellow Citizens—The approaching contest in November; is one of vast and momentous inportance, second in import to no election that has transpired since our formation as a State, unless it be the great Conventional contest for the formation and establishment of our glorious Constitution—The great legislative measures to be advocated at the approaching session of your legislature immediately concern the vital interests of your community. In such a crisis as the present, then, my fellow citizens, it is expedient, nay indispensibly necessary to select for legislators, men illustrious for their wisdom, and discretion, renowned for their talents, distinguished for their attainments and remarkable for their dispatch in business. Solely upon these considerations, my fellow citizens, have I suffered my name to be used in connexion with the high and responsible trust, which in your wisdom you have confided to my discretion."

Why will not Barnum take this chap in tow?

DIED.

At his residence in the Upper District on the 19th Inst, Mr. Nathaniel Redding, aged 91 years; a soldier of the Revolution.
