TRUSTEE'S Sale.

By Virtue of a Decree of Kent County Court as a Court of Equity, the undersigned, as Trustee, will expose to

PUBLIC SALE

to the highest bidder, on

TUESDAY

the twenty fifth day of November, Eighteen hundred and fifty one, at the Tavern Porch of Mr. John McDaniel, in Chester Town, commencing at eleven o'clock A. M., all the real estate, lying in Kent County, of the late Col. James Boon, deceased, consisting of several Tracts, and Lots of Land, and premises, to wit:

1. A Farm or Plantation, called

MAXWELL'S PURCHASE,

or Demock or Middle Farm, containing three hundred and ten and a half Acres more or less, lying on the main road and about mid-way, between Chester Town and George Town X Roads, adjoining the upper Farm of Mr George W. T. Perkins, the lands of Daniel Jones and F. L. Wallis, Esq., about three miles from navigable water at Turner's Creek—the same distance from Church, about two miles from Mill, and School House, and one from Post-Office. The soil is of clay bottom in good condition and yields good crops. There is a sufficiency of Fuel for the Farm. It is divided into three fields; fencing fair. The Buildings consist of a small Frame Dwelling, stable and small out Houses. A well of good water convenient to the buildings.

Situation healthy.

2. A Farm or Plantation, adjoining the above Farm called "Maxwell's Purchase," consisting of several tracts or parcels of land, called,

Reyner's Adventure,' 'Germany' and 'Hudson's Hills.'

containing in the whole,

469 1-2 Acres,

and commonly known as the property of the late John Hudson's heirs, lying on the main road, leading from Chester Town to George Town X Roads, adjoining the farms, of Daniel Jones and Samuel Kerr Esqs. A sufficient portion of the land is in soil is susceptible of improvement. It is convenient to Schools, Churches, Mill and Post-office, and the location is healthy.

The improvements consist of a large two Story Brick Dwelling and Kitchen, with some out-Buildings.

There is a stream of water running through the Farm.

3. A Farm or Plantation, lying about one mile from Chestertown, on the main road leading from Chester Town to George Town X Roads, called

'Black Hall,' 'Hermitage,' 'Tilghman' and 'Foxley Grove,' containing

more or less, and occupied by Mr. John Armstrong, who will shew the premises to any one who may call to examine them. The soil is of clay bottom, good and productive. It is divided into three fields; fencing ordinarily good.

The Buildings consist of a one Story

frame dwelling of sufficient size—a Barn nearly new, with Stabling and Corn Sheds. There is a well of excellent water in the yard, and the situation is a healthy one. This land joins the lands of Mr. Edward Ringgold, Mr. S. Constable Esq. and Mr. Joseph Duff.

There is Fuel on the Farm, but will be sold in connection with it, about

18. 1-2 Acres

OF

WOOD-LAND.

about from it about three fourths of a mile.

4. A small Farm, called

'Margaret's Delight,'

occupied by the Rev. John W. [illegible], who will shew it to any one who may wish to examine it, containing, lying within half a mile of George Town X Roads convenient to Schools, Churches, Market Post-office, and within 1½ miles of navigable water at George Town.

59 Acres,

The Buildings are, a one story Frame Dwelling nearly new, with three rooms below, and two above stairs, in good order; a Barn nearly new—Stable of ordinary condition, Poultry House and Dairy on the premises, with a good Well of water.

The location is healthy.

In connection with this Farm will be offered for sale, about 40 Acres of Wood and Timber Land,

called

'Comwhitten and Chance,'

formerly the property of Henry Hurtt, decd, lying on the road between Millington and George Town X Roads, about two miles from the latter and one and a half from the Farm, and adjoins the lands of Mrs. Martha Rose and Presley Browne's heirs.

5. About 173 ACRES OF LAND, part of the late the "RINGGOLD FARM," adjoining the lands of Mrs. Martha Rose, Mrs. Hannah P. Ireland and Mr. William Miller, about one and a half miles from George Town X Roads; about

"Ferguson Farm,"

15 Acres

of this land is in small growth of

WOOD.

The residue ARABLE and of good soil.—The situation is on the public road and eligible for a residence. Will be offered in connection with this land,

36 1-2 Acres

in the LITTLE FOREST, reserved from the Massey Farm by Col. Boon. It lies about one and a half miles from the above land of 173 Acres, and adjoins the lands of Crisfield's heirs, and Mr. J. H. Cummins.

6. A Farm, commonly called

"THE REDGRAVE FARM,"

containing

170 Acres, more or less, lying, adjoining the Hudson Farm before-mentioned, the Farm of Samuel Kerr Esq. and Hartley's heirs land, and about 7 or 8 miles from Chestertown. A fine stream of water passes through the Farm. A fair proportion is in Wood & Timber.

The DWELLING is a small frame, and there is a stable on the premises.

7. Also 11 or 12 ACRES of

WOODLAND,

called

'BLACK'S WATERING GROUND.'

adjoining lands of Mr. Ebhu Jefferson, formerly J. P. Walker, Col. J. C. Groom and Mr. Alfred B. Thomas, and near the Brick Meeting House, in the vicinity of Mr. J. D. Welch's. The Wood and Timber are fine, and the Soil is prime.

8. A Two Story Brick Dwelling at George Town, with three rooms below and four above stairs besides garret, and also BRICK KITCHEN, adjoining.—There is a fine airy passage in the Dwelling. The premises are in fine order. Also

table, Carriage House, Meat House, Ice House, in good condition, and a good well of excellent drinking water in the yard. There are about

9 or 10 Acres of land attached, including Yards, Garden and Lots. The plot of ground is pleasantly arranged with Shade trees. This property lies within 200 yards of George Town wharf on the Sassafras River, one mile from George Town X Roads, and ¼ of a mile from Frederick Town. The situation is high, about 40 feet above tide, with a handsome and commanding view of the beautiful Sassafrass River and surrounding country, and acknowledged to be one of the handsomest locations for a residence on the Peninsula. The situation is healthy. A Steam Boat runs twice a week from Baltimore to George Town, and sailing vessels ply weekly between the latter place and Baltimore and Philadelphia.

The Terms of Sale,

as prescribed by the Trustee, are a credit of six, twelve and eighteen months from the day of sale with interest from the 1st day of January next, in three equal instalments, to be secured by the Bond of the Purchaser or Purchasers to the Trustee with approved security.
