KENT NEWS.

CHESTER TOWN, Md.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 27, 1851.

☞We publish, in another column, the resolutions and proceedings of the Kent county Bar, upon the dissolution of the old, and the organization of the new Court, which took place yesterday.

The resolutions were presented by the Hon. J A. Pearce, in an eloquent address which was responded to by Judge Chambers, who most feelingly alluded to his long aud cordial intercourse with the Bar, during his Judicial career of nearly twenty years and concluded by declaring his purpose of resuming the practise of Law, to the study of which he has been devoted for a period of more than forty three years

Judge Hopper also replied to the complimentary resolutions of the Bar, in an appropriate address, after which the oath of office as Circuit Judge was administered to him by Judge Chambers. The new clerk of the Circuit Court, J. F. Gordon, Esq. was also qualified and will enter upon the duties of the office.

We speak but the sentiments of our entire community, when we say that the retiring Court has been distinguished by the most profound legal learning the strictest fidelity and all the qualities which adorn the Judicial office.

GODEY'S LADYS BOOK.—The January No. of this popular magazine has been received. This No. contains six full page engravings, 100 pages, 41 contributors, and 28 engravings.—Terms, $3 per annum; address, L. A. Godey, Philadelphia.

☞We learn from the Easton Star that Theodore R. Lockerman, attacked and murdered a negro, on Saturday last. The murderer escaped, but we learn was afterwards arrested at Salisbury, Md.

☞The weather continues very cold, and the navigation still closed.

ICE.—Our citizens, during the cold weather, have been busily engaged filling their ice houses.

Proceedings of the Bar.

At a meeting of the members of the Bar of Kent county Court, held at the office of G. Vickers, Esq., on the 26th day of December, Hon. J. A. Pearce was called to the Chair and James B. Ricaud, Esq., was appointed Secretary. Kent county Court being about to close its sessions by a final adjournment, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the members of this Bar express their sincere regret at the dissolution of a Court, the members of which have so many years, discharged the duties of their office with such signal ability, Judicial learning, impartiality and courtesy.

Resolved, In taking leave of our esteemed fellow-citizen, the Hon. E. F Chambers, as Chief Judge of the Judicial District, whose relations with the Bar, are about to cease, by his withdrawal from the labors of the Bench, we feel it due to him to express our deep sense of the loss of his services to the public and the profession. The Bar has ever recognized in him a magistrate of singular judicial capacity, of sound learning, of strict fidelity, of untiring industry and the utmost promptitude in the despatch of business. They feel bound also to say that our Chief Justice has been not less distinguished by that which is perhaps the highest judicial praise—a firmness of judgment which has ever been unawed by clamor, and unmoved by the influences, which have sometimes disturbed the cause of justice elsewhere The bar part from him with the sincerest admiration for his judicial character, a deep gratitude for his long and faithful services and the most cordial wishes for his health and happiness in private life.

Resolved, That in parting with the Hon. P. B. Hopper and the Hon. J. B. Eccleston, as Associates, we are gratified by the conviction, that the new fields of labor to which they have been called, will be adorned by services as distinguished, as have characterized them in the stations from which they are now to be separated.

Resolved, That the Court be requested to order a copy of these proceedings to be placed on the minutes of the Court.

Seven Days Later From Europe

STARTLING NEWS FROM FRANCE.

ERECTION OF BARRICADES.

New Government Proclaimed.

HALIFAX, N. S., Dec. 20. The Steamship Europa, from Liverpool, with dates to the 6th December, arrived this forenoon, having experienced a constant succession of heavy gales from the West. She lost a man overboard during the passage.

She brings intelligence of the arrival of the long dreaded crisis in France.

The steamship arrived at Liverpool on the 2d instant, after a rough and boi-terous passage.

The steamship Baltic arrived at Liverpool on Thursday the 4th.

THE CRISIS IN FRANCE.

The affairs of France have reached the long dreaded crisis. The coup d elate has been made.

On the first instant, the President, Louis Napoleon, seized the reins of Government dissolve the Assembly by proclamation, declared the city of Paris in a state of seige, arrested the leader of the opposition, and appealed to the people.

The preparation on the part of the President for this movement were perfected with consumate skill and secresy. Every thing was consumated before the Assembly had the least idea of the President's intentions.

During Monday night an entire new Ministry was formed.

At daylight on Tuesday morning the President's Proclamation was found posted everywhere throughout the city, in which ordered the dispersion of the Assembly, the restoration of universal suffrages, and also proposing a new system of Government. He proposes the instant election, by the people, of a President, to hold his office for ten years and to be supported by a Council of State and two Hauses of the Legislature. Pending the election, the Executive power is to remain in the hands of the President.

The election is to take place during the present month, and the President promises to bow to the will of the people He says he has been forced into his present attitude.

It is certain that Theirs, Charnangier, and others of the opponents of the President, had decided to demand his arrest and impeachment on the 3d inst., and were almost in the act of moving in the matter, when they and their principal friends were arrested and conveyed to Vincennes, where they are closely confined.

Whenever the members of the Assembly have attempted to meet officially, they have been ordered to disperse, and arrested if they refused.

Two hundred members had been arrested. Many had subsequently been released; but all the leaders of the opposition were in prison.

Three hundred members of the Assembly are said to have given in their adhesion to the President, and telegraphic despatches from the Departments state that the President'a demonstration has been hailed with the utmost enthusiasm.

Subsequently, however, these reports were contradicted, and on the strength of such contradiction, numerous barricades were erected in different quarters of Paris, but were speedily broken down by the troops At one of them two members of the Assembly, occupying prominent places among the populace, were killed in the conflict.

On Tuesday a section of the Assembly continued meet, and decreed the deposition of the President, and his impeachment for high treason, The meeting, however, was dispersed by the troops.

The decree of the President is ridiculed on all hands.

Troops have been placed in the houses of ex-officers of the Assembly, who were exempted from arrest, among others M. Dupin,

The full rigor of martial law had been proclaimed against all persons concerned in erecting barricades, or who may be found at them, and a large number had been shot.

Up to Thursday night the complete success of the President seemed certain.

FURTHER FROM FRANCE.

[By telegraph from London to Liverpool]

PARIS, Friday, Dec. 5.—The decree of the President appeared to-day, ordering the voting which is to take place on the 20th inst., to the secret instead of public. There are rumors of continued fighting to day in various quarters of the suburbs, but they are not relied upon. The latest published accounts state that the insurgents have put down, but not without a severe struggle. The accounts from the provinces are generally favorable to the President. The movements of the troops are rapid, silent, and firm. During Thursday many barricades were thrown up in Paris. At one o'clock, whilst 5000 troops was passing along the Boulevards, several shots were fired from the neighboring passages and houses. The firing was returned by the troops, and the combat continued with spirit for about half an hour.

LONDON, Friday evening.—The latest account received from Paris represent the troops as successful all points.

Several hundred French refugees left London on Thursday for Paris.

The French Government have the controle of the telegraph lines, and have stopped the transmission of all dispatches.

FURTHER PARTICULARS OF THE MOVEMENTS IN FRANCE.—The Paris correspondents of the London Herald and Chronicle state that Gen, Castellan, at Lyone, and Gen, Evymier, have declared against the President. But this is denied. Doubts are also entertained of Gen. Mignon's disposition towards the Government. Strasburg and Rheims are said to have risen.

LATER.

ARRIVAL OF THE BALTIC.

4 Days Later from Europe.

IMPORTANT FROM FRANCE.

SUCCESS OF PRESIDENT N. POLEON.

ALL OPPOSITION SUPPRESSED.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—The steamer Baltic, of the Collins line, has arrived, having sailed from Liverpool on the 10th inst.

The Cambria arrived at Liverpool at 9 o'clock on the morning of Monday, December 8th.

FRANCE.

The condition of affairs in this country had continued to absorb the public attention throughout the whole of Europe.

It is now definitely ascertained that Louis Napoleon has proved completely successful in his coup d'etat. Partial attempts at resistance had been made by the ultra republicans, but they had been promptly repressed and extinguished. In the Departments, the resistance was confined exclusively to the extreme republicans, who had been repulsed with the same rigor used towards their brethren in Paris.

It may be said in the President's language, that France has accepted the proposal he has made her, but not with that enthusiasm which Louis Napoleon calculated upon. The acquiescence of the people has been universal but tacit. The opponents of the President have preferred the plan which he had proposed, to the alternatives of anarchy or legitimacy. Very few persons can be found who sympathises with the Assembly, or who deny that the President was forced by the continued intrigues of that body, to choose between a surrender of his power, office, and liberty, and the more resolute course which he adopted.

Tranquility was pretty well restored in Paris, by the evening of Friday, the 5th inst. On the following day uptorn pavements, and shattered walls of houses were all that remained of the insurrection in and about Paris.

Everywoere without an exception the troops have been successful.

Fresh arrests continue to be daily made among the Republican leaders.—Changarnier and the Generals were confined at Ham, to be tried by a court martial, on the charge of attempting to seduce the soldiers of the army from their duty

M. Thiers will leave immediately for Italy. Napoleon will undoubtedly have an immense majority at the election for President, which was to take place on the 20th inst.

Marshal Soult died on the 20th ult., in the eighty-second year of his age.

The threatened bonbardment of Tangiers by the French fleet had been avoided by an amicable adjustment of the difficulties.

Kossuth.

The funds already received by the Hungarian chief, from subscriptions for his native land amount to $25,000.—The news from France has determined him to keep, for the present, as near as possible to New York, to be in readiness to depart for Europe in case of necessity. In reply to an invitation from a Boston deputation to visit Boston, he said:

"The steamer which has just arrived from Europe has brought news of the proceedings there, which was not unexpected by me,—"and to the probability which I have frequently alluded to my friends since I have been here,)—and as the next steamer may bring such news as may require my immediate presence in Europe, I must leave for Washington immediately, there to return my gratitude and thanks to the Congress of the United States, in person."

The clerks in Stewart's dry goods store presented him with $203 on Saturday, made up of dollar contributions. A public meeting was held at Albany, on Friday evening, at which Governor Marcy presidee, and strong resolutions were passed in favor of Kossuth and his cause. A committee was appointed to unite with the Governor and Legislature in inviting and welcoming him to the Capitol of the State.
