Neuralgia

There is no need to suffer the annoying, excruciating pain of neuralgia; Sloan's Liniment laid on gently will soothe the aching head like magic. Don't delay. Try it at once.

Hear What Others Say

"I have been a sufferer with Neuralgia for several years and have tried different Liniments, but Sloan's Liniment is the best Liniment for Neuralgia on earth. I have tried it successfully; it has never failed."—F. H. Williams, Augusta, Ark.

Mrs. Ruth C. Claypool, Independence, Mo., writes: "A friend of ours told us about your Liniment. We have been using it for 13 years and think there is nothing like it. We use it on everything, sores, cuts, burns, bruises, sore throat, headaches and on everything else. We can't get along without it. We think it is the best Liniment made."

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

is the best remedy for rheumatism, backache, sore throat and sprains.

MADE 41,724 CONVERTS

Sunday's Philadelphia Campaign Breaks All Records 60,000 At Farewell Services.

Philadelphia, March 21.—The biggest single day in the biggest revival the country has ever known was Billy Sunday's farewell to Philadelphia.

Four times today the Evangelist preached to audiences that overflowed the Tabernacle, some 60,000 being the day's total. Four times he called for converts and reaped a total of 1,858 for the day. This number repsesents the actual number who signed convert's cards, though it represents only a portion of those who came down and shook his hand.

The number of converts for the 11 weeks of the campaign totals 41,724. So far as results go, the country has never seen anything like it. It not only beats Billy Sunday's record, but that of every modern evangelist.

So much for the figures. The tabernacle forgot them today. The workers forgot to count in the whirl and hubdub of the farewells, the ovations and greetings that these 60,000 persons heaped upon the little revivalist who arrived here some 80 days ago.

Audience Stay Till Last.

Four audiences went wild at his first appearance and four audiences stubbornly refused to leave the tabernacle until the evangelist himself left the platform. Eleven weeks had wound him around their hearts until the hearts bled when he was torn away.

Men and women pulled down signs from the tabernacle posts and carried them away. They scooped up big handfuls of sawdust from the shadow of the pulpit, filled their pockets and their handkerchiefs with it and carried it home. They took the tinpans which have gathered the tabernacle offerings; they threw the bunting and flags from about the rostrum, the flower from the pulpit. They carried away everything loose that could serve as a memento of the campaign.

Tonight, while 1,800 men in the choir sang "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," 1,000 ushers, doorkeepers, policemen, firemen and others who have worked in the Tabernacle day and night since January 3 filed past the evangelist like trail-hitters and gripped his hand until it was swollen and knotted at the joints.

At the four services they piled some $2,000 into the collection pans, thinking it was their final gift to Billy Sunday. The committee had announced that the day's offering would go to him personally, but the revivalist would not have it so.

"Every cent you give today," he said, "goes to the poor of Philadelphia." And so the committee acquiesced.

Gets Draft For $51,136.85.

Before he left the city, however, the committee turned over to the evangelist a draft for $51,136.85, the result of the free-will offering which Philadelphia gave to Billy Sunday. It is the largest offering he has received in any city.

There came tonight to bid him farewell representatives of 400 churches of the city and a representative of the city itself to thank him. The Rev. Dr. George H. Bickley, vice-chairman of the Sunday campaign committee, speaking for the churches which invited Sunday here, said he had "brought a crisis to the city and to the State."

Billy Sunday Facts.

Attendance at 146 services in the tabernacle during the 11 weeks of Sunday's stay in the city estimated at 2,500,000.

Conversions, approximately 45,000.

Current expense collections, secured in first six weeks of campaign, $52,000.

Collections for charity, during latter weeks of campaign, $15,630.90, distributed as follows: Emergency Aid $6,245.94; Associated Charities, $2,785.27; Police and Firemen's Relief Fund, $1,108.85 Traveler's Aid, $357.09; Children's Aid $496.57; Legal Aid Society, $711.85; Chi d Federation, $577.01; Juvenile Court Association, $661.29; Country Week Association, $678.82; Visiting Nurses, $740.17; Magdalene Home, $493.91; Children's Seashore Home, $774.06.

Sunday has preached 146 sermons, of an average of 4,000 words each filling, in round figures, 584 newspaper columns.

At a conservative estimate, Billy has pounded on his pulpit at the tabernacle upward of 5,000 times, and walked up and down the narrow platform at least 100 miles.

The tabernacle audiences, for the 11 weeks, would pack to overflowing every Philadelphia theatre every night for an entire season.

The tabernacle corps of physicians and nurses report 1,173 "cases" treated, mostly women who fainted.

More than 5,000 babies and small children were cared for at the tabernacle nursery while their mother heard Billy preach.

Philadelphia's gifts to Billy and members of the revival party would require an ordinary box car for shipment.

Largest number of trailhitters at any single meeting in all the evangelist's career, 964. This number represents the woman who "hit the trail" at yesterday's farewell services for women only.

Smallest number of converts at any one Philadelphia service, 84.

Four hundred churches co-operated in campaign.

More than 500 outside meetings were conducted by the Sunday aides in 11 weeks.

Two choirs of 1,800 voices each led the singing at the tabernacle.

Seating arrangements were in charge of a corps of 1,000 ushers and doortenders, who served without pay.

Tabernacle cost, $18,000.
