Republican Campaign Canard Nailed

To the Democratic Votes of Kent County:

Some of the Republican candidates are saying that if the Anti-Organization candidates had won, that some of us would support the Republican ticket.

This is absolutely false, and we defy any responsible Republican to name a single candidate, or any prominent Organization voter, who ever made any such statement. We have always declared openly that we would abide by the decision of the Democratic voters and give our hearty support to the nominee, whether he be Anti or Organization, nor have we heard any of our friends speak otherwise.

We are Democrats and ask the support of all, without regard to faction.

The Republicans have no chance to win except by Democratic votes, and are trying to get these necessary votes by willful mis representation. Don't be misled.

BIG CONVENTION OF STATE LAYMEN

All Churches Interested in National Missionary Movement.

Great interest is being manifested in the Laymen's Missionary convention to be held in Baltimore November 4 to 7. Eighty similar conventions will be held in leading cities of the United States between October 7, 1915, and April 26, 1916. All Maryland laymen are invited to register as delegates. This movement is interdenominational.

No more favorable opportunity could be offered the church men of Maryland to hear speakers of national reputation discuss topics of vital interest in connection with the great campaign for the evangelization of the world.

The men of Maryland are the kind who do things. They do not dream them all day long, and they should make the coming convention one of the largest and most productive of good in the series planned for the approaching months.

Every churchman should register as a delegate. In order to secure the largest possible registration, committees are being formed in all the protestant churches of the state whose duty it will be to enroll the men of their congregations. There is no limit upon the representation of any church. The registration fee is only $1.00 and every man who has an interest in the spread of the Gospel should enlist now. Mr. Carl M. Distler, 1312 Fiddelity Building, Baltimore, is chairman of the registration committee. In those churches where registration committees have not been named, there is an opportunity for the laymen to get busy on their own initiative, enroll all the men possible and send in the names with the fees. Registration fees will be used to defray convention expenses and for follow-up work after the convention.

During the Baltimore convention the speakers will be practical men who will discuss practical subjects in a practical way. "What Must America Do Under the New World Conditions?" "Recent War Experiences in Turkey," "The Adequacy of the Gospel to Meet Modern Industrial and Social Conditions," "The War and Missions," "Where to Begin in Making the Church More Aggressive and Productive," "Religion in Business and Business in Religion" and "The Sort of Christianity Needed to Conquer the World," are some of the very practical topics which will be discussed.

It is estimated that fifty per cent. of American church members are inactive, either in definite forms of service or as regular contributors to current expenses and benevolences. Of the remaining fifty per cent., many probably need fresh inspiration and a widened vision. In order that all may be enlisted, every active churchman is urged to participate in this interdenominational movement and invite other men to do likewise.

Similar missionary conventions will be held in all parts of the United States during the season of 1915-1916. The campaign is being organized by the Layman's Missionary Movement with the co-operation of the missionary agencies of the different communions. The culminating feature will be a National Missionary Congress in Washington, D. C., April 26th to 30th, 1916.
