FARM OR PLANTATION,

in Kent county, Maryland, containing

333 Acres,

lying on the navigable waters of Sassafras River, within two miles of the Head of Sassafras, adjoining the lands of Ebenezer Welch, Esq., and occupied by Mr. Samuel E. Briscoe.

The farm is bounded on three sides by water, and requires but little fencing. There is a sufficiency of

WOOD AND TIMBER

for the farm.

The MARL BANKS are of easy access, and almost inexhaustible. The quality of the marl has been examined by the State Geologist, and pronounced to be fine. The soil is naturally good, adapted to the growth of white clover, and marl has been successfully applied.

THE DWELLING is 40 feet square—the Out Buildings are good. The drinking water is fine. Churches, Schools, Mill, Post Office, &c., are convenient, and the situation is a healthy one. A steam boat plies three times a week between George Town (within two miles of the farm) and Philadelphia.

THE TERMS will be accommodating, and made known at the sale.—Possession will be given on the first day of January next.
