

we do not design interfering in any respect with the Police as now organized, or to remove any person connected with it for his political opinions, provided he does not hereafter render himself amenable to the laws now in force for the government of the Police of Baltimore.

We believe the Officers and Men in the department are disposed to be what the laws require them to be, Conservators of the peace, and it is hoped and expected that they will cheerfully aid us in preserving the quiet of the City.

We also invoke all good citizens to assist us by their counsel and example, and that they will use their best endeavours to prevent any undue excitement, and that they will also advise all disposed to act otherwise, to quietly and peaceably acquiesce in the measures now about being inaugurated by authority of the Governor.

James Young.

Wm. Thos. Valiant.

In order to discharge the duties incumbent upon them as Police Commissioners with the least possible delay, in case the late Board should decline to surrender their office, the Commissioners rented the premises No. 1. North Street until possession could be obtained of the office on Holliday Street.

On Motion, adjourned until To Morrow morning.

James Young

William Thos. Valiant.

Commissioners of Police for Baltimore City.
