HEFLIN'S STORY A GOOD ONE

Congressman J. Thomas Heflin, of Alabama, who is one of the most popular stump speakers in the country and who is a particular favorite in Maryland, where he has spoken in many campaigns has a campaign story which is making a tremendous hit wherever he tells it. He first sprung it at the St. Louis convention, where it brought 15,000 people to their feet with a shout of laughter. Mr. Heflin tells this story as follows:

"I was in Washington during the Republican National Convention and one afternoon, while standing in front of a newspaper office reading a bulletin a darky who was standing next to me said: "Boss who did de Republicans nominate out thar?' I replied 'Hughes' 'Hughes?' he said; 'I ain't never hered of him. Who did the Progressives nominate?' 'Why, Roosevelt,' I told him, 'and he will probably lay down on them.' The darkey was quiet for a minute or two, and then he turned to me and said, 'Boss, who do you reckon the white folks will nominate this time?'"

Relieves Headaches Without Dosing

By Applying Sloan's Liniment to Forehead You Can Stop the Severe Pains.

Many headaches are of a neuralgic origin. The symptoms of such headaches are intense and lingering pains in brow, temples or back of the head.

There is one certain relief that has been known and recommended for years back, Sloan's Liniment. One application and the dull pain is practically gone. It is easily applied without rubbing. Rubbing is unnecessary, as Sloan's liniment quickly penetrates to the seat of trouble.

Aching muscles, rheumatism, bruises, lumbago, chiblains, sprains and stiff neck can also be most effectively treated with Sloan's Liniment. Cleaner than mussy plasters or ointments; it does not stain the skin or clog the pores

At all drug stores, 25c., 50c., $1.00.

ROBINS DECLINES TO MEET MRS. FUNK IN DEBATE

Brilliant Woman Progressive Supporting Wilson Had Challenged Hughes Convert to Match Reasons.

Raymond Robins, who was chairman of the recent Progressive National Convention in Chicago, has declined the challenge of Mrs. Antoinette Funk to meet her in public debate on the reasons why Progressive voters should be asked to vote for Charles E. Hughes when President Wilson is in the field. In his refusal Mr. Robins indicated that he would decline all offers to match logic with opponents on the question of Progressive activity in this presidential campaign.

Mrs. Funk is a lawyer in Chicago and was one of the prominent leaders of the Progressive movement so long as Colonel Roosevelt remained at the head of it. She and Mr. Robins fought side by side for Progressive principles and she was one of the most active campaigners for Mr. Robins in the Senatorial campaign in Illinois two years ago.

Mrs. Funk now is a member of the Associate Committee of Progressives co-operating with the Democratic National Campaign Committee. She puts her challenge to Mr. Robins on the high ground of public service, asking that her former associate submit the case of Wilson vs. Hughes to popular juries.

In her letter to Mr. Robins, Mrs. Funk said:

"In 1912, endorsing the Progressive party with my whole heart, I left behind me a tradition of middle western and New England Republicanism and when the end came in the Auditorium last June, I followed Theodore Roosevelt to the door of the Republican camp with faith that the Republican party of 1916 was in somewise different from the Republican party of 1912 that he and you and I condemned and I waited for a sign that would point the new way. It did not come, but events momentous in their import did transpire and against my inclinations and traditions and against my associations and prejudices, I was forced in honesty to myself to admit that Woodrow Wilson, greater than his party, a leader of his party, had in large measure kept for the Progressives their contract affirmed by them and entered into with the people.

"I am inviting you now, Mr. Robins, to join me in a series of debates, the question to be resolved and the arrangements to be made through our respective committees, such debates to be held during the campaign, it being understood that the resolution of the question shall comprehend all matters properly at issue in the minds of Progressives seeking their political affiliation for 1916."

The Clothing Situation

Woolens are 33% to 50% higher
Trimmings are as high as 300% to 400%
Silks and other linings have advanced 100%
Pure woolen worsteds almost off the market
And then labor is absolutely out of sight

Last week our customers marveled how we could offer such a showing of suits and coats at $15.00. We not only sold regular $15.00 goods, but sold $16.50, $18.00 and $18.50 grades all at $15.00.

The most marvelous value we have is the No. 4264 Blue Serge—about a dozen suits left—special price this week $14.75

Absolutely Guaranteed Fast Color.

In spite of the war prices we will continue another
