

Sir: You are hereby notified to pay no moneys to the order of the late Board of Police of the City of Baltimore, but to hold such funds as may be at the order of the Board of Police, subject to the order of the present Board.

Respectfully,

James Young, President

Office Board of Police,
Baltimore, Nov. 13th 1866.

To Cashier of National Farmers and Planter's
Bank of Baltimore:

Sir: You are hereby notified to pay no moneys to the order of the late Police Board of the City of Baltimore, but to hold such funds as may be at the order of the Board of Police, subject to the order of the present Board.

Respectfully,

James Young, President

Resolved, That proceedings be instituted at once to obtain possession of the property and effects of the Board of Police, by Mandamus, or such other legal proceedings as counsel may advise, and that Messrs D. H. P. Patroche, William Schley, and John M. Trazier, be requested to act for the Board in this behalf.

Resolved, That the notice given by Messrs Young and Valiant to the late Board of Police be renewed, and the claim therein made be reiterated.

Resolved, That the order to the Marshal and police force, of Nov. 3rd, be again published in the daily papers.

The Commission continued in the transaction of official business until near six o'clock, when the following was received from the Mayor's Office, City Hall,
Baltimore, Nov. 13th 1866.

Messrs: James Young & William Thos Valiant;

Gentlemen. I shall be pleased to meet you at the Mayor's office at 7 P. M.

Yours respectfully,

John Lee Chapman, Mayor.
