Notice

TO THE MEDICAL FACULTY.

IN answer to the numerous daily calls for fresh and genuine Vaccine Virus and finding almost an utter impossibility of obtaining it, I have experimented upon a young and healthy cow (with genuine Variolous matter) and if I succeed will be enabled to supply the demand here and elsewhere with great pleasure.

LAWRENCE M. RICAUD.

Rees' Corner, June 4, 1853.—3w

Circuit Court for Kent County In Equity, May 25th, 1853.

ORDERED, That the sale of the real estate of George Roeder, made and reported by James B. Ricaud, the trustee, be ratified and confirmed, unless cause to the contrary be shown on or before the twelfth day of July next; provided a copy of this order be published once a week for three successive weeks in some newspaper printed and published in Kent county before the 21st day of June next.

The report states the land sold for $30.75 per acre.

J. F. GORDON, Clerk.

May 28, 1853.

"An act to provide for the election of Road Supsrvisort in the several Counties of this State."

SECTION 1st. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That there shall be elected on the first Wednesday of November, 1853, and on the same day of every second year thereafter, by the qualified voters of each election district in the several counties of this State, one Road Supervisor who shall be a qualified voter, and a resident in the district, whose duty it shall be to superintend and direct the repairs of the public county roads and bridges within his election district, in such manner and under such regulations and restrictions as may be directed by the County Commissioners of his county.

SEC. 2nd. And be it enacted, that the return judge of each election district of the several counties shall make the returns for the election of Road Supervisors at the same time and in the same manner as other election returns are required to be made, the Clerk of the Circuit Court shall certify to the county commissioners who had been returned as having received the highest number of votes for Road Supervisor in each election district of the county, and upon receiving said certificate, the County Commissioners shall issue to each elected supervisors a commission setting forth the time for which, and the election district of which he has been elected Road Supervisor, the salary a Road Supervisor shall be entitled to receive, and the amount of money (if any) appropriated for the repairs of roads and bridges which may be under his supervisions, setting forth also, the times at which said road supervisor shall report, and such other regulations and restrictions as the said county Commissioners may dopt in relation to said office and officer; and that said supervisor shall have power to employ any person as deputy supervisor or agent that he may deem necessary.

SEC 3rd provides for cases where there is a tie vote.

SEC 4th. And be it enacted, That the Road Supervisor shall begin on the first of January ensuing his election, and shall continue for two years from the date, and until the qualification of his successor.

SEC. 5th. And be it enacted, That each Road Supervisor who shall be elected or appointed under the provisions of this act, shall annually, at such time as the county Commissioners of his co., shall determine, report to them, on oath or affirmation the general condition of the roads and bridges under his supervision, the amount of money or labor, or both expended or performed on said roads or bridges, in the employment of deputies, agents, contractors, laborers and materials, and such other matters, relating thereto, as the county commissioners shall suggest and require; and upon such report being made in a manner prescribed by the county commissioners, or a majority of them being satisfied that said road supervisor has fully discharged his duty as such, and not before, they shall pay or cause to be paid to the said road Supervisor or order the amount of compensation which shall have been determined by them.

SEC. 6th directs the county Commissioners to fix the compensation of Supervisors.

SEC. 8th. And be it enacted, That in cases in which public county roads form dividing lines between election districts, the county commissioners shall divide said roads between the supervisors of the contiguous election districts, in such manner as they may deem right.

SEC. 10th. And be it enacted, that any road supervisor who shall be elected or appointed under the provisions of this act, shall be liable to be presented by the Grand Inquest of his county, for any neglect of duty or malfeasance in office, and shall, upon conviction thereof before the Circuit Court of this county, be fined, in each case, not less than $5, nor more than $100 in the discretion of the Court.

SEC. 11th. And be it enacted, That the county commissioners of the several counties shall have power to revoke the commission of any road supervisor at any time during his term of office, and shall have power to fill any vacancy that may occur, from any cause, in the office of road Supervisor for the remainder of the term that shall become vacant.
