

Baltimore Tuesday Morning Nov. 20th 1866.

Board met at 10. O'clock.

Present - James Young, Pres.

William Thos. Valiant.

The reports of districts were read and examined, the reports being satisfactory they were ordered on file.

This day having been set apart for the laying of the corner Stone of the new Masonic Temple, very little business was done. The day was pleasant and the streets thronged with citizens & strangers of the Masonic fraternity. The turn out was large and the display imposing and ceremonies interesting.

The Board appointed Charles H. Dryden police Magistrate for the Middle district station house.

The Board deeming it advisable to be on the street to superintend in person the force under their charge - they adjourned until 2 O'clock P.M.

2. O'clock P.M. The Board met.

Present Messrs Young and Valiant.

There being no special business, the Board at 3. O'clock Adjourned.

Baltimore Nov. 21st 1866.

Wednesday Morning -
The Board met.

Present. James Young, Pres.

William Thos. Valiant

Mr. Valiant being compelled to leave and Mr. Chapman, Mayor being out of the city, Mr. Young conducted the proceedings.

Reports were received from the districts and examined.

Applications for positions as policemen were received and filed.

After attending to the visitors the Board at 1 1/2 O'clock Adjourned.