

Baltimore Nov. 26th 1866.

Monday Morning.

The Board met at 10. o'clock.

Present. James Young.

William Thomas Valient.

The reports of the Captains of district were read and examined.

x Charges against officer James Davis of the Eastern district, were preferred, for being asleep whilst on duty. The case was examined, the charges sustained and the officer fined two dollars - $2.00.

Charges against Officer Bateman for neglect of duty were preferred - the case examined, the charges sustained, and Officer Bateman dismissed.

Charges against, Mr. Lander, were presented, the case was examined and Mr. Lander not having bonded - his name was dropped from the list.

x Charges against George W. Leach on examination were not sustained, but on further investigation the officer admitted that he had gone into a Tavern on Sunday and drank, within a month past.

John. C. Wiseman was appointed a policeman in place of officer Bateman discharged, residence No 366, N. Bay St.

Samuel Boyd. No 336. E. Fayette Street was appointed a policeman in place of officer Maggerman dismissed from Eastern district.

x Lunningham was appointed a policeman to take the place of Lander who had not bonded.