HERE'S an incident which shows that even the liquor dealer sees the end approaching. While impaneling jurors for the various courts in the Criminal Court recently, Judge Heuisler was surprised when one of the prospective jurymen asked to be excused from serving because he was "in attendance on a dying friend."

"What business are you in?" asked the Judge, who took a sympathetic interest. Then the man disclosed that his "dying friend" was the whiskey business. "I am in the liquor business." the man told the Judge. "It is dying fast, and will soon be a corpse. I want to be free to attend to it as long as it is alive."

The Judge excused the liquor dealer from doing jury duty until after the funeral.

VICTORY BUT HALF WON

The Battle is still on to defeat those forces which retard progress, produce inefficiency, create unhappiness and cause waste.

The people of Maryland are proud of its Legislature for winning the first battle against the liquor ring. Thirty more states must ratify the National Prohibition Amendment before the Country goes dry.

Why should Maryland wait two, four or six years before given her release against whiskey and its evil associates?

To save our grain, conserve our coal and protect our soldier boys, Maryland should immediately pass the State Wide Prohibition Bill.

This will give every liquor dealer---at least---one year---plenty of time---to get out of the business without a loss.

Labor is scarce---the farmers know it. The employees of the brewers will have no trouble locating new, and in most cases, better jobs.

FOR AMERICA

The second battle against the whiskey crowd must be won.

Every reader of this paper can help in the fight by writing his representative in the General Assembly of Maryland at Annapolis to vote for and use his influence to pass the State Wide Prohibition Bill.

MONEY IS PLENTIFUL

But It is Hard To Keep Without A Bank Account

¶ No matter how plentiful money may be, you cannot keep it if you fritter it away.

¶ And to carry money around in your pocket affords an ideal opportunity for frittering.

¶ Any man may spend a dollar foolishly from his pocket when he would hesitate to draw a check.

¶ Money is plentiful in this country—more so than in any other country of the globe.

¶ Make it plentiful for yourself by depositing it in this bank instead of frittering it away.

Attractive Prices Next Week

All Winter Coats Reduced

These stylish Coats will be sold at a much lower price next week. A few very choice garments are still on hand, and of course will be included in this special sale.

A Special Lot $8.00 each

We have some All-Wool Coats left from last year, now slightly out of style. They lack the immense collar and perhaps the belt—but have good lines and will make a good appearance. They will serve for motoring, etc., or for second-best like wear. Some were priced originally $20 to $30. It will pay you to look them over.

Your choice—$8.00 each.

Large Assortment Fine Percales

If you want Percales to make dresses, skirts, or blouses, we have them in many patterns—pin stripes and broad stripes—small checks and plaids—light colors and dark shades.

Buy a Standard Pattern from Pattern Counter and see how little a skirt will cost you—made to measure. Best quality (36 in. wide) 25c yard.

Silk Petticoats

Another shipment of Silk Petticoats has arrived for next week's selling. A special number with percaline top and silk ruffle, in all colors, $2.75 each.

Also, all Silk Taffeta and Washable Satin, in plain colors and changeable shades. Prices $3.50, $4.00, $5.00 and $6.00 each.

That 39c Hose

We have made mention before of a special Hose with ravel-stop-top at 39c pair. It is a little heavier than the thin gauze weight, so as to stand plenty of wear and at the same time look well. Some customers think so well of it that they are buying them by the box (six pairs). Sizes 8½, 9, 9½ and 10.

Special Prices On Wool Blankets

Wool Blankets will likely be both scarce and high in price next Fall. We will allow a 10% cash discount on all blankets bought next week.

We still have some Wool Plaids in good colors. Also, some good Woolnap Blankets.
