SHALL WE HAVE AN HONOR FLAG?

HONOR FLAG OF THE
THIRD LIBERTY LOAN

AWARDED BY THE UNITED STATES TREASURY DEPARTMENT TO EVERY TOWN SUBSCRIBING ITS QUOTA

Shall our community be enrolled among those of the land which will have the honor of hoisting the flag of the Third Liberty Loan?

From one end of the country to the other the people of cities, towns and villages are engaged in a patriotic competition for the privilege of flying this flag.

Our community, which has ever been foremost in the promotion of the patriotic causes of the government is expected to be lined up with those on the roll of honor, and it is believed that every man, woman and child among us will share in this work, which, briefly told, is the subscription of our allotment of bonds.

The greatest honor that can come to any town in this campaign will be to win the right to fly the first honor flag in the United States.

The honor flag to be awarded to communities is 36 by 54 inches and constructed from a good quality material like that used in the Navy. It has a red border and a white center and three vertical blue stripes, indicative of the Third Liberty Loan campaign. This flag will be awarded to each community that subscribes the sales quota set for it by its Federal Reserve District Liberty Loan Committee. As an additional honor emblem, a blue star, to be sewed into the white field of the flag, will be awarded to communities every time they increase their quotas by one hundred per cent.

In other words, if a town's quota is $100,000, it will be entitled to an honor flag when its subscriptions reach this amount; should its subscriptions reach $200,000 it will be entitled to one blue star and for each additional $100,000 it will receive another star.

In addition to the awarding of the honor flags, there will be window cards measuring 7 by 9 inches bearing a reproduction of the large Honor Libery Loan Flag and containing a space for the subscriber's name. When a bond is sold the name of the purchaser should be written in by the bond salesman or it can be written in by the subscriber himself. This card will then be hung in the window of the subscriber's home or place of business as evidence of his patriotism and loyalty to his country.

The Honor Flag plan is one that will separate the quick from the dead towns beyond all shadow of a doubt. It puts the classification right up to the communities themselves. Where will YOUR town stand? This is a question which YOU have got to answer.
