There are balances due the county from the former and late Collectors as follows, viz:

From G. W. Spencer, former Collector, an acknowledged balance of $100,00;
From Jas. H. Eder, Collector for 1850, about 100,00:
From the deputies of Wm. Moffet, Collector for 1851, a supposed balance of about 150,00:
From G. D. S. Handy, late Collector, a supposed balance of about $200,00:
making together the sum of $550,00 which, if the anticipations of the Commissioners are realized, upon a final settlement there will be in the hands of the Commissioners, a surplus of 1,035,89 which (with the balance due by Collectors, and the levy to meet insolvencies, &c for the present year) will more than meet all expenses that may arise before the next levy.

The Commissioners regret having failed in obtaining a final settlement with the collectors above mentioned in time for the levy; had they known certainly the large amount due by them the percentage on the county assessment might have been reduced.
