chamberom, gone flickering through the frogs of other climes, teu ade the miser watcher in his dimes. Or the great Alexander at the battle of Hunker's Bill, who in the agony of despair, frantically shrieked, O grave! peace has gone like my skeul b-y days, and I don't care a darn. He was a whole hoss and a team shure

Feller citizens and gals too—in our hall of legislation confusion runs riot and anarchy reigns supreme. Rise up then like makers in tater patch and shake the dew drops off yer hunting shirts and fall into ranks. Sound the tocsin! beat the drum! and blow the tin horn! till the startled echoes reverberating from hill top to hill top, and from gopher hill to gopher hill, shall reach the admantine hills of New England, and the arid rous particles of California prick up their ears, and in whispered accents, enquire of her valors "what's in?"

Feller citizens and the wimmin—I repeat it to your post and from the topmost peak of the Ozark mountains bid defiance to the earth by hollerin' whose feard in such t underin tones, that quaken with terror yo'll forget what nigger is. Don your rusty regimentals and grease the locks of your guns and put in new flints grind your old scythes and make swords out on 'em, mount your horses and save your nation or rust!

Ladies and gentlemen—the great bird of American liberty's flewed aloft and perin up on the wings of the wind; and now hoverin' high over the cloud capped summits of the Rocky Mountains and when he shall have penetrated into the unknown regions of unlimited space and then shall have div down and lit on deddy's wood pile, I shall be led to exclaim in the language of Paul the ostler, cold pork or die!

The time is critical, bloods goin' to be poured out like soap suds outen a wash tub, and every man that's got a soul as big as the white of a nigger's eye 'll fite, bleed and die for his country. Thems the times—you want men in the councils of the nation that you can depend on—that's me! Elect me to Congress and I'll stick to you threv thick and thin like a lean tick to a nigger's shin! I'm not goin' to make a lection-erin' speech I'd scorn the act. You know me I've been fotched up among you, already upon the wings of tophfted imagination I fancy I see you marchin' to the polls in solid phalanx, and with shouts that make the earth ring, "hurrah for Jim Smith" down on my opponant like a thousand o' brick on a rotten punkin.

A Remedy for Hard Times.—The citizens of many portions of Kentucky, by common consent, have resolved not to press, sue, and harrass one another as long as these stringent times shall continue, but to exercise that greatest of all Christian virtues, forbearance. And any individual who shall distress his neighbor, by instituting legal action to force money from him, is not to be encouraged in doing so by his neighbors, and incur their displeasure, and the lawyer who shall undertake their "case" shall meet with a similar fate.

An Altered Note.—The Easton (Md) Gazette, states that a $100 note on the Bank of Commerce, of Baltimore, altered from a $5, was presented by a stranger at the counter of the Easton Bank a few days since for change. It was altered by the washing process, and was so well done as to almost defy detection from the most experienced.

The Coming Crop of Wheat.—It is stated in the Delaware Journal that Messrs. J. T. Price & Co., of Brandywine, have purchased the entire coming crop of wheat of a farmer of that State, at two dollars per bushel of sixty pounds—the wheat to be delivered at Brandywine immediately after it is harvested.

Tennessee Politics. Hon James M. Thomas and Major Wm. H. Polk have announced themselves candidates for Congress in the 6th District. Hon. Andrew Ewing declines to be a candidate for the office of Governor.

New Orleans Charter Election.—The Charter election which took place on the 20th inst., resulted in the complete triumph of the Know Nothings.

Liquor Law Vetoed.—Governor Barstow, of Wisconsin, has vetoed the Prohibitory Liquor Law recently passed by the Legislature of that State.

☞ The annual election in Connecticut takes place on the 2d day of April, for officers, four members of Congress and Legislature.

☞ The father of Matt. Ward has lost a suit against the city of Louisville, for injury done to his house by the mob.

☞ "Ex-President" Walker, the filibuster, has been granted 52,000 acres of land by Nicarugua, where he is about to settle.

☞ A tornado passed over Danville, Va., on the 16th inst. Fifteen houses were blown down, and $15,000 worth of damage done.

☞ The Governor of Pennsylvania has appointed the Hon. Thos. S. Bell, of Chester county, Judge of the 2d judicial district.

County Meeting.

THE disastrous fire at Easton a few days since has involved many deserving persons in distressing embarrassments. In a season of great agricultural and general prosperity, our citizens are certainly able, and we believe are also willing, to give a small portion of their substance to aid these sufferers. All who are thus disposed will please attend a county meeting to be held at the Court House in Chester Town, on TUESDAY the 10th of April, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

THOROUGH BRED HORSE

Childe Harold,

WILL stand the ensuing season at the subscriber's, on the following terms: Thirty-five dollars for each mare that he may cross, and 50 cts. to the groom in each case; the money to be paid on or before the 1st of November next. As nothing can induce the subscriber to allow his horse to exceed fifteen mares, those breeding to Harold will run no risk, so far as the horse is concerned, in obtaining a foal.—Persons from a distance sending mares, will have them taken care of on most reasonable terms, nothing but the grain they consume will charged.

CHILDE HAROLD is rising four years old, is a beautiful dark chesnut sorrel, fifteen and a half hands high. He took the premium for the best three year old thorough-bred colt, over all competitors at the Baltimore State Cattle Show.

PEDIGREE:

Childe Harold was sired by Maryland Priam, (originally called Cripple,) his dam, Hannah Gland, was sired by Maryland Eclipse, who was sired by the world renowned imported Eclipse—Dam Blossom, a thorough-bred mare, sired by Robenson's Vaunting; Robinson's Vaunting was sired by Col. Lloyd's Vaunting. Blossom was the dam of the celebrated running mare Fourth of July. P. T. SIMMONDS.
Chester Neck, near Chestertown, Kent County, Md., March 31, 1855.

THE NORTHERN BRED HORSE

Granite State Morgan Colt.

GRANITE STATE is four years old, of a dark sorrel color, dark main and tail. For style, beauty, action and docility, Granite State is excelled by none. He was awarded the first premium, when three years old, at the State Fair, held at Keen, N. H., Sept., 1853—the only fair at which he has ever been exhibited.

GRANITE STATE MORGAN COLT

Will stand as follows: Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays of every week at the stable of John W. Corey, near Bacchus' Mill, in Worton.—Thursdays and Fridays of every week in the neighborhood of Still Pond and Harmony. Saturdays at Dr. Whaland's Mill, near Chestertown.

PEDIGREE:

Granite State Morgan Colt was sired by the noted General Gifford, owned by Iram Woods, of Hancock, N. H.; he by the noted Gifford Morgan, owned by F. A. Weer, of Walpole N. H.; he by the Woodbury Morgan; Woodbury by the Goos Horse; Goos by the original Morgan Horse, raised and owned by Justin Morgan, from whom the race derived the name Morgan. His dam, raised and now owned in Dublin, N. H., is a superior Black Hawk Mare, she being only third from a full bred Black Hawk. For proof of pedigree refer to the citizens of the town of Dublin, N. H., among whom are

John Gleason, Ephraim Foster,
E. Greenwood, Jacob Gleason,
Harry Learred, Calvin Learred,
Joseph Evleth.
Dexter Mason, } Members of the present
Thadeus Morse, } Legislature.

TERMS:—Twenty dollars to insure a mare with foal, to be paid when the mare is ascertained to be with colt. All mares parted with before the time for foaling will be considered with colt, and the owner will be held responsible for service. All accidents at the risk of the owners.—The season commences the 2d April, 1855, and ends the 1st July following.
