

No other business of importance to note

At 1 P.M.

adjourned

Baltimore Friday March 22nd 1867

Board Met

Present Leferre Jarrett, President
 Jas. E. Carr
 Wm. B. Fusselbaugh

The District reports were received and examined.

This is a very stormy Snowy day, yet had a number of visitors.

Notes were sent to a number of return Judges, to call at this office to-morrow, (Saturday) to name persons to fill vacancies, (18 or 20) that exist in the list of Judges.

No no special business to note, all being of a Consulting Character in relation to the reorganization of the Police force.

At 1 P.M.

adjourned

Baltimore Saturday Mar. 23rd 1867

Board Met

Present Leferre Jarrett, Present
 James E. Carr
 Wm. B. Fusselbaugh

The District reports were received and examined.

Notices were sent to about 20 persons to come up and qualify as Judges of Election.

In order to facilitate the reception of application, the Board at 1 P.M. adjourned to meet at 8 P.M. on Monday 25th inst.

adjourned