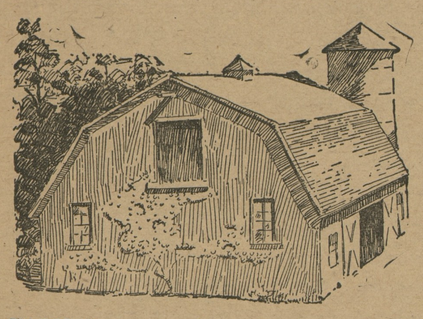
E. S. ADKINS & CO. EVERYTHING NEEDED FOR BUILDING

Good Farm Buildings Were Never So Important as Now



NO FARMER can reach maximum production and profits without good farm buildings.

A good barn keeps the stock healthy and in good condition. Good wind-tight hog houses make possible two litters a year with healthier pigs; a well built poultry house increases egg production; a good implement shed doubles the life of farm machinery.

Every good farm building pays big dividends on the investment year after year.

Plan your buildings now and see us for practical plans for all types of farm buildings.

Usefulness

This is the epoch of usefulness.

We are judged by what we are relatively to one another.

Willingness to help others is frequently nullified by feebleness of purpose.

An accumulating savings account, no matter how small the deposits, is material evidence of decision made and kept.

The accompanying sense of security opens the broadest field of usefulness.

Liberty Bonds & War Savings Stamps

Do Not Sell or Trade Them

The importance of holding Liberty Loan Bonds is as great now as it ever has been during any period of the Government's financing. The War is over, but its costs and expenses of demobilization must be reckoned with as well as other demands for current and extraordinary expenses. To provide therefore the spirit of saving and thrift must be maintained.

In instances where it is absolutely necessary to realize on your Government bonds, any banker will be pleased to sell them at the market price and pay you the proceeds, less a nominal charge for service.

Do not sell your bonds unless it is absolutely necessary, and if you must sell dispose of them through a bank or a reputable broker.

The 1919 Revue Company

AT CHAUTAUQUA

The Latest Popular Song Hits

The six young ladies who make up the Revue Company were chosen from hundreds who have had Chautauqua and Lyceum experience. They were selected for ability, attractiveness and their great possibilities in ensemble work. In the varied program which they render each has an opportunity to demonstrate her particular ability. A professional coach has given special attention to the ensemble work of the company and no effort has been spared to make each number on the program a finished product.

How would you like to hear the latest song hits that are being whistled and sung right now in the big cities, like New York, Chicago, and Philadelphia? The Revue Company presents these in the most up-to-date fashion. The songs are introduced in a novel manner with lively action and striking costumes. There will be solos, quartette singing, an instrumental trio, readings and novelties.

The beautiful and striking costumes which are used are of the best materials and comprise six complete changes. There are six ensemble numbers in which all six of the girls appear in costume. These numbers are especially worth-while and would form an extraordinary program even if unsupported by the solo, duet, trio and quartette instrumental and vocal numbers.

This is without doubt one of the best concert and entertaining campanies ever presented on any Chautauqua. Be sure to hear them.

Chautauqua's Value Today

"During the war President Wilson looked upon and counted the Chautauqua as 'an integral part of our National Defense.' He appealed personally to the people to support it as a public duty.

"In the period of reconstruction the platform is offering the only sane, sensible and lasting solution for our industrial and social unrest—that is a sane, calm and reasonable discussion of the problems now up for solution. Under the Chautauqua tents the people are coming together for the purpose of reasoning together.

"We have started out to take our message of hope and aspiration to the men in the field, in the factory, yes, out in the forest. We are now putting oil in toil and laughter in work.

"The Chautauqua has done more than any other force to break down the imaginary Chinese Wall that all too often and all too long has separated the town from the country.

"Ex-Governor Eberhart, of Minnesota, has said: 'If I had my way I would rather have had the honor of being the father of the Chautauqua movement than any other one started in America.'

"The Chautauqua is now doing its share to make not only democracy a workable reality at home, but it is also helping to carry the blessings of education, entertainment, relaxation, pure amusement and purposeful fun to all the world.

"The Chautauqua taught the youth of America that men and women are more than dollars and cents; that human lives are more than mere things; that ideals are more potent than armaments; that the masses are more powerful than potentates and armies; that, when the spirit is right and noble, the deeds will follow as effect follows cause.

"The Chautauqua has helped to give the old world a new vision and has helped to recruit the millions of brave boys who put that vision into purpose."

"Polly of the Circus"

AT CHAUTAUQUA

Five Sets of Scenery in This Play

SCENE FROM "POLLY OF THE CIRCUS"

"Polly of the Circus," that delightful American play, full of sentiment and dramatic interest, will be presented this year on Chautauqua with a full cast and five complete sets of scenery. Many have doubtless had the rare pleasure of seeing this drama presented. Chautauquans who have not seen it will have some idea of its popularity when they know that it is said by many to be even better than "The Man From Home" and "The Fortune Hunter." It will be given by a company of experienced players and with numerous stage accessories designed to produce a very realistic effect.

Just a true, native drama of the lives of the people we all know, and most of us love, is the best description that can be given of "Polly of the Circus," whose trials and triumphs have moved from smiles to tears and from tears to pure delight over a million happy playhouse patrons.

The story is just a compelling study of a tender child born and reared among the garish life of the circus tent, thrown by accident into the home of a young village clergyman, and there awakened to hope, to love, to knowledge, to God. There is a wholesome sweetness and a delightful charm about this drama that has given it high rank among the successes of the stage. ... or and has few equals in the way of
