Elections.

It is with the greatest pleasure, that we announce to our readers, the glorious victory achieved by the American party, in Baltimore, on Wednesday last—the contest was warmly contested, but in spite of hired bullies and Washington money, the sons of the soil have proved to the world that they cannot be bribed or driven from duty—this triumph settles the vote of Maryland at the Presidential election in November next. The following is the vote for Mayor:

The Americans have elected 13 and the Democrats 7 of the First Branch City Council—the Second Branch stands 5 to 5.

FLORIDA ELECTION.

Savannah, Oct. 8—The election in Florida for Governor and Congress took place yesterday. The returns from Duval county show a majority of 185 for David S. Walker, the American candidate for Governor. It is reported that the election throughout the State was warmly contested, with the probabilities in favor of the Americans. The above, however, is the only county definitely heard from.

DELAWARE ELECTION.

The election which took place in Delaware on Tuesday for Inspectors and Assessors, has resulted in the success of the Democrats by 1600 majority. The liquor question was the only one discussed in the canvass, and party triumphant is opposed to the present prohibitory laws which are now in operation in that State. The vote polled is a very small one, and the friends of Fillmere and Donelson are confident of carrying the State at the election in November.

THE ELECTORAL VOTE.

For the convenience of our readers, we publish the electoral votes to be cast by the several States for President and Vice President at the coming election:

ONE AND THE SAME.

Democrats say that they never again could vote for Franklin Pierce; but they hope better things of James Buchanan because he is a new man. Let them pause before they come to such a conclusion. It is all one concern. Buchanan says he goes for the Cincinnati Platform, which endorses Pierce and his policy.—Here is a part of that Platform:

Resolved, That the Administration of FRANKLIN PIERCE has been true to Democratic principles, and therefore true to the great interest of the country; in the face of violent opposition he has maintained the Laws at home, and vindicated the rights of American citizens abroad; and therefore we proclaim ☞ OUR UNQUALIFIED ADMIRATION OF HIS MEASURES AND POLICY.

Franklin Pierce himself thus speaks of Buchanan's nomination, from which it appears that the whole concern is all of one piece:

"I congratulate you that your choice has fallen on a man who stands on the ☞ IDENTICAL PLATFORM THAT I OCCUPY, ☜ and that he will take the SAME with the standard lowered never an inch!"

A vote for James Buchanan is, therefore, a vote for the continuance of the policy of Franklin Pierce. How can any man conscientiously opposed to that dangerous policy, aid in the election of Buchanan?

Elections take place on Tuesday next in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and S. Carolina.

Stop That Lie.—The Snow Hill (Md.) Shield, republishes the falsehood started by an Eastern paper, that the Daily News had abandoned Fillmore and Donelson, and come out for Fremont. We don't complain of the Shield particularly, because he has not the honor of an exchange but he will oblige us by telling the people of Maryland that the News is one of the journals of the country which never surrenders.—Philadelphia News.

The News is a staunch American journal and able supporter of the National candidates—Fillmore and Donelson.

Bloody Riots.

Baltimore, on Wednesday last the day of election, was the scene of the most bloody riots that has for some time past disgraced that city. The foreigners and their hirried bullies from other cities, succeeded in their deeds of blood and murder. The election passed off quietly at some of the Wards.

At the 12th ward about noon a party of desperadoes of the foreign faction, headed by Petty Naff, Country Thompson, Fred. Konig, Bill Merritt and Tom Furlong, left the polls and proceeded towards the 20th ward. They met and attacked a party of Americans in Mulberry street, discharging at them vollies from their pistols. After unmercifully beating several of the parties, the foreigners took shelter in the head-quarters, near the New Market Engine House. They did not long remain, however, for they soon sallied out and fired a volley of musketry upon a hack containing Americans wounding two of the party. This led to a general fight, in which some five hundred on both sides were engaged. For a time Paca street, near the Lexington market house, presented a perfect scene of battle. What, with the incessant firing of pistols, discharges of musketry, and cries of the wounded, the spectacle was an awful one to behold.

An Irishman, apparently about twenty-two years of age, was killed by a ball which entered the right breast.

Another man, named Charles Brown was also killed in the riot.

Walter Sparks, another one of the leaders, was shot—he was taken home in a dying condition.

Fred. Konig was shot in the back, the wound supposed not serious.

Elisha Lee, known as Bony Lee, the leader of the "Rip Raps," was mortally wounded by a musket ball.

There were a number of others wounded, in this affray but their names could not be ascertained.

A young man named Joseph Edwards, a member of the American party, was killed at the 17th ward.

About three o'clock in the afternoon, the foreign party of the 8th ward, gave out that no more Americans should vote. This exasperated them when a general row ensued, which ended in the Americans being driven from the polls. They retreated through Monument street to the neighborhood of the Monument, receiving a galling fire all the time. At this place a young man named John Carter, a member of the Lone Star American Club, was most inhumanely murdered.—He received a musket ball in one of his legs which caused him to fall, immediately on perceiving which an Irishman approached him with a musket and putting the muzzle to his head fired, scattering the brains of the unfortunate man over the pavement.

A man whose name was understood to be Woodland, was also seriously shot in this fight—he received a ball in the groin

A daughter of George Eaton, Esq. residing at Mount Vernon Place, was shot whilst sitting at the front window.

The doors and steps in the neighborhood of Centre and Monument streets, are completely riddled.

Rioting was rife pretty much all over the city. It is impossible to give a full list of the killed and wounded. As far as ascertained, five have been killed and fifty-six wounded, many of whom mortally.

Letter from Major Donelson to Edward Bates.

The Nashville Patriot contains the following letter from Major Donelson in response to a letter from Edward Bates, of Missouri, informing him that he had been nominated for the Vice Presidency by the National Whig Convention:

Tulip Grove, Sept. 30th, 1856.

Sir: I have had the honor to receive, to day, your note of the 25th, with that of the 19th inst., informing me of the proceedings of the late Whig Convention at Baltimore, by which my name, as a candidate for the Vice Presidency, in association with that of Mr. Fillmore for the Presidency, has received the unanimous vote of the delegates comprising that Convention.

Such a testimonial of public confidence by distinguished and leading members of a party upon which I had no other claim than that of fidelity to principles which should be common to all parties when the country is in danger, is received with feelings for the expression of which I can find no adequate language.

I can only say to you, sir, in reply that it has been my effort through life to follow the great lights to which we are indebted for our happy form of government, and that there is no sacrifice which I am not willing to make in order to maintain it in its original purity.

The evil of the day is sectionalism, and the country can find no repose until this dangerous spirit is rebuked by the voice of the people, animated as they were in the days of Washington, by a holy love for the Union, and determined to withhold their confidence from those who do not regard its preservation as the paramount object of their lives.

If the South claims the election of a man to the Presidency because he is favorable to Southern interests, and the North one because he is favorable Northern interests, there is an end to our federal system. This was not the sentiment of parties in the days of Washington, Jefferson, Madison and Jackson. It is our purpose, as patriots, by whatever name we may be called, whether Union-loving Whigs, Americans or Democrats, to eradicate the influence of this sentiment from the public councils, and restore that which will give us a President for the whole people, and a government that will respect alike the equal rights of all the sections of our land, without regard to latitude or diversified interests.

I am very respectfully,
Your ob't serv't,
A. J. Donelson.

Hon. Edward Bates, St. Louis, Mo.

Senator Benjamin.—Mr. Benjamin addressed a meeting of Democrats and Old Line Whigs, at New Orleans, on the 23d. The Bulletin informs us that his speech was a perfect failure, being a special plea in his own behalf, and remarks:

Whenever he mentioned the names of Clay and Fillmore, the house shook with applause; and when the meeting broke up, the crowd went down stairs hurrahing for Fillmore! Fillmore!! FILLMORE!!! vociferously, and kept it up long after they reached the street and into Lafayette Square. In fact, a Fillmore procession was formed outside on the instant, and marched through the streets! If Mr. Benjamin raises such enthusiasm everywhere for Fillmore, we suggest that the Fillmore men in the city request him to visit every parish in the State. It will save them a good deal of labor.

They Come! They Come!!—Col. T. H. Oswell, an influential Democrat of Mississippi, in view of the crisis which is upon the country, and the dangers which threaten our common Union, has deemed it his duty as a true Southern Union man to come out for Millard Fillmore, considering him best calculated to steer the ship of State through the impending storm into a haven of safety. There are thousands who agree with and will act with Col. Oswell. The questions now before the country are of more importance than mere party ties. Those who refuse to break those ties now, love their party more than they do their country.

Gov. Floyd on the Presidential Contest.

New York, Oct. 3.—At the close of Gov. Floyd's speech yesterday, he said: "I find from a sojourn of one week in New York that the enemy of Democracy is not the American party. There are bonds of union between the American party and the Democracy; and, if you can show me that the Black Republican party can only be beaten by my vote being cast for Mr. Fillmore, I will give my vote for Mr. Fillmore, if the ground opens and swallowed me! Virginia too, will come up and stand at my back in that moment and in that vote."

☞ "I believe it, (slavery,) to be a great political and a great moral evil. I thank God that my lot has been cast in a State where it does not exist."—James Buchanan's Panama Speech.

Lancaster, Oct. 9th.—The Americans of this city are rejoicing over the victory at Baltimore; and the Fillmore Club are firing thirty-one guns in honor of the event. The demonstration is immense. There is speaking from four stands. The whole street is occupied by a dense mass for more than a square. The speaking was continued till 9 o'clock when a torch light procession was formed and passed through the principal streets. Henry White, the friend of Henry Clay, presided at the principal stand. Messrs. Davis and Roman, of Maryland, made speeches in which they gave the details of the recent struggle in Baltimore.

National Agricultural Fair.

Philadelphia, Oct. 9th.—The National Fair grounds are occupied by a dense mass of people to day. The visitors will exceed one hundred thousand. There is now a jam of vehicles for more than a mile in length, occupying the approaches leading to the ground. The butchers parade was a showy affair, but was not as numerous as was anticipated.

Gov. Pollock made a speech at the dinner at the Agricultural fair to-day. John A. King, the Republican candidate for Governor of New York, was among the guests.

Interesting from Kansas.

Chicago, Oct. 9th.—Private advices received here from Kansas mention a rumor that Governor Robinson was about to convene the Free State Legislature.—110 Free State men arrested under Harvey, at Hickory Point, have all been committed on the charge of murder.

Every stage and conveyance into the Territory is crowded with settlers returning to their claims, from which they were driven by Lane.

Governor Geary is discharging his duty with fearless energy.

End of the Duel.—R. A. Pryor, editor of the Enquirer, and B. B. Botts, son of Hon. John M. Botts, were arraigned before the Mayor of Richmond, Va., on Wednesday, to answer the charge of leaving the State to engage in a duel. After examing several witnesses, the parties were held in $2000 each to keep the peace.—Balt. Sun.
