KENT NEWS.

CHESTER TOWN, Md.

SATURDAY MORNING, APIRL 11, 1857.

COURT.—The April Term of Kent county Court, will commence its session on Monday the 20th inst.

MURDER TRIAL.—We learn by a letter from Elkton, that the trial of Alfred Reed, free negro, charged with the murder of George Vansant, a case removed from this county, commenced yesterday morning.

☞The following is a report of a Committee, appointed to examine the students attached to Acadamy, at Middletown, Delaware, and under the charge of Prof. J B. McDowell:

Middletown Academy, March 26, '57.

The undersigned members of the committee appointed to examine the students at the semi-annual examination held at the Academy this day; beg leave respectfully to report that we have carefully discharged our duty, and that we are exceedingly gratified at the correctness, and promptitude, which characterized the exercises of the pupils.

The course of instruction, method of teaching and general government of the Academy as adapted and pursued by the excellent Principal elicit our highest commendation, and we cordially unite recommending most heartily this meritorious Institution to the deserved confidence and liberal patronage of the public.

Signed Rev. Thomas F. Billop,
B. F. Chatham, M. D.,

ACCIDENT.—Thomas N. Levering, Esq. a well known merchant of Baltimore, met with a severe and painful accident on Friday last. It appears that he was on his way to the city in his private carriage, returning from his mill, near Havre De Grace, and that the vehicle upon descending a steep hill was overturned, Mr. L. thrown out and had his leg broken in two places. He was conveyed to his residence in the city, and under surgical treatment is now doing as well as could be expected.

THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT IN VIRGINIA. The proposed plan of Mr. Thayer of Massachusetts, for colonizing the waste lands of Virginia by free State men is ridiculed by the Richmond papers. The Whig says:

"It is an amusing project at present, but if it should be attempted to be carried out—which it never will—it may become decidedly tragical. At all events we are ready to wager a fine suit of black that the notorious Thayer never sets foot upon our soil himself for any such purpose. If he should we expect to meet him at Phillippi."

The Enquirer hints that the emigrants, if they should thoughtlessly enter Virginia, would be forcibly expelled, if not lynched, and adds:

"They have doubtless concocted the plot, but they have not the boldness to attempt its execution. Northern men who come among us with honest intentions and locate quietly are always welcomed with the right hand of fellowship. There are many such and they would not be backward in lending their aid to the ignominious expulsion of a horde of underground railroad agents and abolition incendiaries."

Connecticut Election.

Hartford, April 7.—Further returns of the election held yesterday show a Republican majority in both Houses. The whole Republican State ticket is probably elected.

In the first and third Congressional districts, Ezra Clark, Jr., and Sidney Dean, Republicans, are both elected. In the second District, Samuel Arnold, Democrat, is elected. The fourth district is still doubtful.

The St. Louis Election.

St. Louis, April 8—The full returns of the city election held on Monday, show the following result for Mayor:

Winner, Emancipationist,	5,487
Pratte, Democrat,	3,759

ARRIVAL OF THE CANADIAN.

The steamer Canadian has arrived with Liverpool dates to the 25th ult.

The steamer Niagara, from Boston, arrived at Liverpool on the 33d.

Diplomatic relations between Austria and Sardinia have been broken off.

England—Previous to the dissolution of Parliament, Lord Palmerston, in reply to certain questions, stated that no direct overtures for the return of the embassies had been made from Naples It was indirectly asked whether the sending of political prisoners to La Plata would be sufficient. In reply, Lord Palmerston stated that the British Government would not be satified with Naples merely emptying her prisons to fill them again.

The English press generally speak favorably of the moderation evinced in Mr. Buchanan's Inaugural Address.

Breadstuffs have declined.

BUSINESS OF THE CRIMINAL COURT.—The petit jury was finally discharged for the term in the City Criminal Court yesterday. During the past January term the following cases have been disposed of: assaults 67; riot 4; assaulting officers 11; picking pockets 1; assault with intent to murder 11; assaulting wives 4; selling lottery policies 2; murder 7; obtaining goods under false pretences 4; larceny 19; attempt to rob 1; assaulting a mother 1; highway robbery 1; receiving stolen goods 4; being rogue and vagabond 2; keeping bawdy house 1; model artiste 1; arson 3; keeping disorderly house 1, cruelty to a horse 1; conspiracy 2—total 148. Of the seven murder cases mentioned, three were acquitted, one convicted of murder in the second degree, and one of manslaughter, and three were dismissed, (the Seeger brewery cases).

During the term fifteen persons were sent to the penitentiary—the shortest term being one year and six months, and the longest twelve years and three months. Their aggregate terms of imprisonment amount to sixty-eight years and three months.

The grand jury found 164 true bills during the term, and 24 persons were discharged from jail, no bills being found against them. Twenty-two cases were removed to the county circuit court.—Balt. Sun.

Affairs in Washington.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—The Administration has completed its arrangements relative to China, and Wm. B Reed, Esq., of Philadelphia, who is now in this city, has been tendered the mission.

In addition to other vessels, the steamer Minnesota will proceed to China. An order for her preparation will be issued to-morrow.

The Land officers in Minnesota have been directed to continue the withdrawal of lands falling within the probable line of the railroad routes established under the grants of Congress.

Pre-emption claims, based upon actual settlement, and not for speculation, and made up to the time when the line or routes were definitely fixed on any of the lands withdrawn, will be allowed, provided the testimony is clear and explicit.

The offices of the newly created land districts will be established at Brownsville Dacota, and Nebraska cities.

Charles G. Green has been appointed Navy Agent at Boston.

The case of Commodore Ogden has been taken up in the Naval Court of Inquiry.

The President has appointed Joseph W. Gray, Postmaster at Cleveland, Ohio.

Also, Thomas Miller, Postmaster at Columbus, Ohio.

LAST LETTER FROM SIR JOHN FRANKLIN.—The following letter from Sir. John Franklin is believed to be the last received from his pen. It was never published before in America;

"Whale Fish Island, Bay of Disco, 11th July, 1845.

"My Dear Sister:—The appearance, dress and manners of the Esquimaux bespeak that care is taken of them by the government. Several of them can read the Bible with ease, and I am told that when the families are all collected, the children are obliged to attend school daily. I looked into one of the huts arranged with seats for this purpose When the minister comes over from Disco, he superintends the school; at other times the children are taught by a half-caste Esquimaux. How delightful it is to know that the Gospel is spreading far and wide and will do so till its blessed truths are disseminated through the globe. Every ship in these days ought to go forth to strange lands bearing among its officers a missionary spirit; and God grant such a spirit on board this ship. It is my desire to cultivate this feeling, and I am encouraged to hope that we have among us some who will aid me in this duty.—We have divine service twice on each Sunday, and I never witnessed a more attentive congregation than we have.—May the seed sown fall upon good ground and bring forth fruit abundantly to God's honor and glory. Ever your affectionate brother,

"(Signed,) JOHN FRANKLIN."

SUBMARINE CABLE ACROSS THE MISSISSIPPI.—Mr. Wilson, superintendent of the Mississippi telegraph, successfully laid a marine cable across the Mississippi river at St. Louis, on Wednesday. The cable was imported from England, and it is of sufficient strength to render communication entirely permanent and reliable. It has three conducting wires, and it in every respect similar to the one crossing the English channel from Dover to Calais.

The Kalloch Trial.

Boston, April 8—The jury in the Kalloch case were discharged this morning, being unable to agree. They stood 8 for

THE BOND STREET MURDER.—The trial of Mrs. Cunningham and Eckle had been set down for the third Mondy in April in the Court of General Sessions, but on Thursday Judge Davies granted an application of the prisoners to transfer the trial of the indictment to the Court of Oyer and Terminer. The real reason for this transfer, we understand, is that the accused think both the City Judge and Recorder Smith prejudiced against them by the proceedings before Coroner Connery. These two magistrates took part in the inquest, and acted as Corner's counsel in questioning witnesses. The Recorder is particularly objected to by the prisoners, on account of some expression he made use of while examining one of the Misses Cunningham, and which led the accused to suppose that they would not have a fair trial under his presidency. It is Recorder Smith's turn to sit at the General Sessions, but, as he is indisposed Judge Russel will probably take his place for the first week.

We learn from good authority that the story of the discovery of the murderer by Mr. Clinton, published in the Post, is entirely unfounded. The counsel of the accused have no possible clue to the murderer, though they have facts in their possession which, they claim, will prove that their clients are not the guilty parties.

HON. SAMUEL BRENTON, of Indiana, who died a few days ago, was a member of the late Congress and had been re-elected to the next. He was formerly a Methodist clergyman, and in politics was a republican. His congressional life will be remembered for an incautious expression which he applied to the Washington correspondents of the press at the time of the corruption investigation. One of them having cast some undeserved imputations on his conduct in reference to the Minnesota land bill, he avenged himself on the floor of the House of Representatives by stigmatizing the whole tribe as "demented fragments of humanity."

ANOTHER CONJUAL MURDER.—At Melrose, Canada, Edmund Russell, keeper of a popular tavern, recently died suddenly. As soon as he was cold in his grave his wife married Neil Beaton, who had been employed by Russell, but was discharged for using improper familiarities with the wife of the latter. The body was exhumed at the requested of the neighbors, when the widow and her new husband attempted to escape to the United States, but were arrested. A medical examination showed the presence of arsenic in the stomach of the deceased man.

Hanging in North Caroline.

A correspondent writing from Goldsboro', N. C, says:

Three negroes—two likely young men and an old woman, the mother of twenty children—were hung at Greenville, Pitt county, yesterday, for murder. From early morn till noon every avenue leading into town was crowded with persons, representing all ages sexes, classes and conditions of the populations in the county around about. About 9 o'clock in the morning, a steamboat arrived from Washington, with some five hundred passengers. The crowd was estimated at five thousand persons, of which at least one thousand were females.

A Young and Beautiful Wife Murdered in Louisville.

Louisville, April 4.—Our community is much excited in consequence of the discovery of a most cruel murder, which appears to have been committed Thursday night. The name of the person murdered is Mary Travers, a beautiful and accomplished girl of only 24 years of age who had been married but about eight months. Her husband, who is supposed to have committed the horrid deed, was found lying beside the dead body of his wife in bed. He had also attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat but his injuries are not believed to be serious.

Still another Tragedy—a Father and Daughter Shot.

Louisville, April 4.—Intelligence has been received here of a startling tragedy which occurred at Washington, in this State, yesterday. A Mr. Baker, a resident of that town, armed himself and deliberately took the life of his daughter—after which he placed the death weapon to his own breast, and shot himself. No cause has been assigned, as yet for the dreadful tragedy.

Exports of Cotton to Europe.

Now Orleans, April 6—The Exports of Cotton to Liverpool are increasing, and those from this port during the week past reach 35,000 bales, a decrease of only 5,000 as compared with the some week last year.

From Mobile during the past week, the shipments have been less in proportion than those from this port, being only 11-000 bales, against 28000 the same week last year.

NEW CASTLE BANK.—A committee appointed to examine the affairs of this suspended Pennsylvania bank have reported its liabilities at $204,000, of which $85-000 is on protection loan and can be redeemed without a dollar of specie. Its assetts fare said to be good for nearly $300,000.

☞The republican State Judicial ticket was carried in Michigan by 10,000 votes. They elect six out of eight Circuit Judges, and the Regents of the State University, belong to the same faction.

Court House Burned.

Vincennes, April 7—The Court house of Wabash county, Illinois, at Mount Carmel, with all the records since the foundation of the county, was destroyed

ARLIVAL OF STEAMER TEXAS.

LATER FROM NICARAGUA.

Battle Between General Walker and the Costa Rican Forces—Rumored Defeat of the Allies with Great Slaughter—Reported Assassination of Ex-President Rivas—Rumored Defection of General Canas.

The Texas arrived at New York on Thursday night from the Isthmus bringing dates from Aspinwall to the 23d, San Juan del Sur to about the 19th or 20th, and from Greytown to the 19th of March We give the reports with the following introductory remarks of the Tribune:

If we are to believe the story sent us by the purser of the Texas, the aspect of affairs has materially changed. Walker has had a battle, in which he lost only two men and killed six hundred Costa Ricans; General Canas, the commander in chief of the allies, is under arrest for proposing to treat with Walker; President Rivas has been assassinated; Col. Lockridge is going to capture San Carlos right away, and—but that will do; it is only necessary to add that of a number of persons who came direct from Nicaragua questioned by our reporters, not one believed any considerable portion of these statements. It true that Lockridge has received reinforcements, but it does not appear that he has done anything. The news from Walker comes to Panama by the Orizaba, and by telegraph and passengers across the Isthmus, of course just in time to reach a steamer bound for the United States.

The report of the purser is as follows: On the 16th Gen. Walker, with 400 men made an attack on St. George, occupied by about 2,000 of the enemy. After driving the enemy and gaining the Plaza he burned a part of the town most important to the allied army, when he learned that about 1,200 of the enemy, under Gen. Chamora, had marched by another road to make an attack upon Rivas, whereupon General Walker marched for that place, and met the enemy in full retreat, at the forks of three roads, hotly pursued by Gen. Henningsen and his command, who had driven them out of Rivas upon their attack with great slaughter.

On either side of the road where the allied forces were met by Gen. Walker was an impenetrable growth of cactus, and placing them between the deadly fire of General Walker in their front and General Henningsen in their rear, in consequence of which the allies were completely panic-stricken, and throwing down their arms stood paralyzed, meeting their fate with little or no resistance. Nearly all their officers were killed, and very few of their troops escaped being killed or wounded.

The allies by their own account, lost 327 killed, and over 300 wounded. Gen. Walker estimates their loss at about 1,100—600 killed and 500 wounded. Gen. Walker's loss was 2 killed and 21 wounded. The slaughter was so great that Gen. Walker was unable to properly bury the dead, and was compelled to order the bodies burned to prevent putrification and insure the health of the city of Rivas, which order was being carried out The sloop of war St. Mary's was at San Juan del Sur when the Orizaba left.

It is reported and generally believed that Gen. Canas, the commander of the allies, is under arrest for having made certain overtures to Gen. Walker; also, that Gen. Chillon had raised a body of men in Leon and was about to march to join Walker, and that President Rivas had been assassinated. The last report is said to be confirmed by a letter received at Greytown by the wife of his son Ramon Rivas.

Spencer, Vanderbilt's agent, has left the country, and was to have sailed on the Illinois. It is reported that General Mora, becoming suspicious of him, had written to his brother, President Mora, of Costa Rica relating thereto, and President Mora replied that "the man who would betray his own countrymen would betray any one," and to watch his movements with the utmost scrutiny.

Col. Lockridge, on the San Juan river, had received another strong reinforcement of Texas, with a large amount of provisions and ammunition, and with the steamer J. N. Scott, recently retaken, which had been thoroughly repaired, proceeded up the river.

The commanded of Col. L. now garrison the only two communications by water to Costa Rica on the San Juan river, viz: at Hipp's Point, mouth of the Sarapiqui river, 210 men, under the command of Col. F. B. Anderson; 188 men, under the command of Gen. C. R. Wheat—the balance, 152 men, in the advance, near Machuca Rapids, under the immediate command of Col. Lockridge.

PACIFIC RAILROAD.—The annual rrport of the Directors of the Pacific Railroad has been made, and shows that the earnings of the road for the year ending Feb. 28th, 1857, were $426,285, and the expenses $258,574—leaving a net gain of $156,711—which speaks well for a road only one hundred and twenty-five miles long, running from St. Louis through hills and along a bluff river bank. More flattering results still are looked for, as soon as the fifty-two miles of road west of Jefferson City, running through an open country, shall have been put in operation.

APPOINTMENT.—The Washington papers officially announce that the Hon. John Appleton; of Maine, has received the appointment of Assistant Secretary of State, vice Mr. J. A. Thomas, the late efficient incumbent, resigned. Mr. Appleton also announces his withdrawal from the editorship of the Union, having been moved thereto by the delicate state of his health, which did not permit him to assume the peculiar duties and heavy responsibilities of the charge of a daily newspaper. It is stated that Mr. Thomas will receive a foreign appointment. The new editor of the Union will be announced in YELLOW FEVER AT RIO.—The captain of the bark Nameaug, which arrived here on Saturday, fifty days from Rio, reports that yellow fever, in its worst form, was raging there, and that very few of the crews of northern vessels, trading there, escape an attack of the pestilence. The crew of the Eameaug, were all taken with the disease and sent to the hospital, which rendered it necessary for the Captain to ship a new crew before he came to this port. Some vessels took in cargo in a hurry and put to sea, thinking to escape the scourage, but had not been out many days before they were obliged to put back, with all hands either disabled or dead.—N. Y. Mirror.
