The Republicans are in for a hot primary fight.

Boost the Kent-Bay Shore Ferry. May it come quickly.

The Democratic dove of peace did some good work last week. Let the good work go on.

Base ball still is dear to the hearts of Kent countians as proved by the recent interesting and well-attended games.

DEMOCRATIC SANITY

We congratulate the Democratic party and the people of Kent county that Democratic sanity in Kent county has been restored.

The ticket agreed upon by the two Democratic factions in Kent and published elsewhere is the immediate and direct result of party harmony. An excellent county ticket has been presented to the electorate of this county.

The chances of Democratic success have been improved one hundred per cent and Democrats everywhere are prepared to stand together and work for the election of the whole Democratic ticket.

Much hard work will be needed to bring success, however, and this work must be performed not only by the candidates, but by every Democratic citizen interested in good government and restoration of the Democratic party to power in Kent county. Let the leaders of the Democratic party begin at once an effective and strong party organization in every district looking to the purification of the registration lists and the casting of a full Democratic vote in November. With an excellent State ticket and a strong local ticket representative of every element of the Democratic party of Kent county, we can, an must, conduct a campaign that will lead to a satisfactory outcome when the ballots are counted.

We will have more to say later as to the individual makeup of the ticket from our candidate for Senator Wm. F. Russell, right down the line.

Chautauqua is coming. Have you secured your season tickets?

The following Kent countians attended the Annual Field Day meeting of Cecil County Farmers—James T. Anthony, Rumsey Anthony, Mr. Derrick, County Agent; Miss Margaret Rogers, County Health Nurse: Miss Hill, County Home Demonstration Agent; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Pennington and son, Norman.
