

Baltimore Saturday April 6th 1867
 Board Met
 Present Lefevre Jarrett Presk
 James E. Carr
 Wm. B. Fusselbaugh

The District reports were received and examined
 Not so many visitors to-day.

Judges and Clerks & Clerks came up freely and were sworn in, yet a number were excused from various causes, principally owing to exemption from law, having served one term, within five years.

At 1 P.M.

adjourned

Baltimore Monday April 8th 1867
 Board Met
 Present Lefevre Jarrett Presk.
 James E. Carr
 Wm. B. Fusselbaugh

The District reports were received and examined

Judges & Clerks, still coming up, and office kept open until 2 o'clock P.M., and from 3 $\frac{1}{2}$  to 5 P.M.

Applications were received to-day from a number of persons, and many visitors were present to favor their friends,

At 1 P.M.

adjourned