KENT NEWS.

CRESCITE ET MULTIPLICAMINI

CHESTER TOWN, MD.

SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 28, 1857.

PORK.—There has been several lots of pork sold during the week for $8 per 100 lbs.—it is dull at the price asked by holders.

☞ The weather continues cold—Chester river was frozen over Thursday morning. This has not been the case, so early in the season, since 1831.

COMMISSIONS.—The commissions for the newly elected officers for this county have been received. Jesse K. Hines, Esq. the clerk, has qualified and entered upon the duties of his office.

THE SCHOOL.—The Female School in Chester Town, will be opened by Mr. and Mrs. Trible, on the first day of January next, instead of the 1st December next, in consequence of some delay in having the School house prepared. The School is expected to open under favorable auspices and to be generously patronized.

THIEVES ABOUT.—Our town it seems, is infested by thieves—last Saturday evening about seven o'clock, some bold scoundrel stole a large hog from the store of Mr. Levi Fiddis. The granary of Messrs. Ruth & Emory, was broken open some nights ago and robbed of thirty bushels of wheat.

JUDGE HOPPER.—The Centreville Advocate states that Judge Hopper has returned home from Baltimore considerably improved in health. He is, in the opinion of his physicians, gradually recovering from the severe attack under which he has been suffering, and, it is hoped, will soon be sufficiently restored to resume his labors upon the bench.

THE ELECTION RETURNS FOR BALTIMORE CITY.—Gov. Ligon was in the city yesterday, and on consultation with eminent counsel has come to the conclusion that, notwithstanding the clerical and other errors which exist in the returns of the election for Baltimore city, as the executive officer of the State it only remains for him to commission all the officers for the city returned as elected.—The commissions will accordingly be issued at the close of this and begining of the next week. If any contests as to the legality of the elections arise they will be made and determined in the mode and manner prescribed by the constitution and laws of the State.

MRS. CUNNINGHAM'S TRIAL.—The Goshen Democrat states that at the opening of the November term of the Supreme Court, at Newburg, Judge Strong presiding, the District Attorney of Orange county produced a letter from District Attorney Hall, of N York desiring an adjournment of the Court until Dec., for the purpose of trying Mrs. Cunningham's case, at that time. The Court, however, was not willing to make such an order upon a mere written request from Mr. Hall Hence the case, if tried in Orange County, must go over to next Circuit, which will be held at Newburg.

CONTESTED ELECTIONS.—It is understood that both the seats of Messrs. Harris and Davis, returned as members elect to Congress, from the third and fourth congressional districts of this State, are to be contested. Mr. Brooks announced some days that he intended to contest the seat of Mr. Davis. We now hear that Mr Whyte has determined upon the same course in relation to the seat of Mr. Harris.

☞ Congress will assemble at Washington on next Monday week. Captain Meigs reports that the new Hall will be in readiness at the opening of Congress However, it is the intention of the Clerk of the House, it is said, to organize in the old Hall, and accordingly it has been fitted up and is now ready for occupancy.—The new Hall will not, probably, be occupied before spring.

☞ Wednesday the remains of General Worth were interred in New York city, beneath the monument erected to his memory, and the funeral pageant was one of the most splendid ever seen in that city. All the flags were at half mast, the church and alarm bells were tolled, minute guns were fired, immense crowds of spectators thronged the streets and the military were out in their full strength. The latter were reviewed on the Battery by the Governor.

FROM MEXICO.—Later advices from Mexico say that the country was in a most distracted condition, another general revolution impending, the fall of Comonfort regarded as certain, the sacrifice of his life probable of the return of Santa Anna being negotiated for by the revolutionists William Moran, editor of the Mexican Extraordinary, has been thrown into prison for publishing an article against the Governor of Zacatecas.

ACQUITTED.—John S. Patterson, indicted for the murder of John Grasslein, in November, 1855, was tried last week and acquitted.

Burning of the Steamer Rainbow—Further Particulars—Loss of Life about Seventy-Five.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 24th.—The steamer Rainbow which was burnt out the 21st inst., ten miles below Napoleon, Ark., had 347 passengers on board when she caught fire. It is supposed that seventy-five are lost, principally deck passengers. The officers of the boat were all saved. The fire is attributed to an incendiary. As soon as the fire was discovered the boat was run ashore, where it burnt to the water's edge. The steamer Minnesota brought the rescued passengers to Memphis. The books were destroyed and no list of the lost can be furnished.

SECOND DISPATCH.

Among the lost by the steamer Rainbow were Mr. Johnson, of Paducah, his wife and two daughters, and a Miss Bond of Memphis.

THE ALLEGHENY COUNTY MURDER.—Fife, Stewart and Charlotte Jones to be Hung—The Supreme Court, in session at Pittsburg, as we learn from the Chronicle, affirmed the judgment of the Court below in the case of Fife, Stewart and Charlotte Jones, convicted of the murder of Henry Wilson and Elizabeth McMasters, at McKeesport. The Chronicle says:

When intelligence of the action of the Court reached the prisoners, the effect on each was most extraordinary and unlooked for. Stewart, who has always displayed the most astonishing self-possession and calmness, appeared overwhelmed by the news, and betrayed a degree of emotion that he never before manifested. His whole hope was centered on the Supreme Court. He believed firmly that there would be a reversal of the judgment of the court below in his case, and when he found the hope, which had buoyed him up suddenly destroyed, his self-possession deserted him, and he gave himself up to a degree of anguish that surprised while it pained his fellow prisoners. He still proclaims his innocence, and maintains that, though a courts held otherwise, he is guiltless of the blood of the Wilson family

Fife, too, was taken aback not a little when the decision was made known. He soon recovered his equanimity, however, and beyond declaring his innocence, he spoke but little on the subject. He says: they may hang him when they please, but that Stewart is an innocent man, and that it he be executed, it will be a judicial murder.

Charlotte Jones received the news with extraordinary composure. To our mind, she is a callous wretch—insensible to all the fine feelings of the human heart, and indifferent whether or not she ends her days on a gibbet.

THE GREAT ENGLISH MILLIONARIE.—The vanity of riches is seldom illustrated so strikingly as in the case of the great English millionaire Morison, who died recently worth $29,000,000. It seems to be one of the conditions of the accumulation of enormous wealth in a single generation that the possessor shall first disqualify himself, from enjoying it, and in some cases even appreciating the fact that he holds it. Mr. Morrison accumulated this almost fabulous amount himself, and in the regular course of his business without any extraordinary turn of fortune yet the following extract from a leter in the Boston Post shows how little benefit he permitted himself to receive from all wealth. What a state it is upon the exclusive devotion of all the faculties to the mere accumulation of property:

Mr. Morrison retired from active business several years since, without withdrawing his capital from the mercantile house, and though managing his vast funds himself up to the time of his death with all the sagacity of earlier days, he has for the past three years been possessed with the idea that he should come to want. More than two years ago he commenced doing day labor upon a farm held by one of his tenants, for which he received twelve shillings a week, and this he continued up to the time of his illness. For the last eighteen months he has been a regular applicant for relief to the parish, assembling twice a week with the town paupers at the door of the "Union," and receiving with each one of them his two shillings and a quarter loaf. His friends have indulged him in these fancies on the ground that it was the best choice of two evils. The truth was money was his god; and the idea became at last too great for him and broke him down. And yet he is said to have made a most judicious will, and his investments up to the last are characterized by great good sense. The probate duty on his will exceeds £100,000.

Death of Hon. Horatio Seymour.

Middlebury, Vt., Nov. 23.—The Hon. Horatio Seymour, LLD., died here on Saturday. He was one of our most prominent and respected citizens, and for some twelve years was United States Senator from Vermont.

The Missouri Legislature.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 17.—The bill restricting the issue of State Bonds to $2,000,000, and providing for the prompt payment of those already issued, passed the House this afternoon in the same form as it passed the Senate on Saturday.

☞ The Hannah More Female Academy of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Reisterstown, fifteen miles from Baltimore, was destroyed by fire Tuesday night, the inmates escaped safely.

☞ The steamship Arabia sailed from New York on Wednesday, for Liverpool, with one million and a half of specie on board.

☞ Hon. Alex. Nesbit diee at his residence Baltimore County, on the 23rd inst. aged 82 years.
