VALUABLE FARM

OR PLANTATION,

lying and being in Broad Neck, Kent County, Maryland, the property of the late Isaac Gale.

This Farm lies in one of the best neighborhoods in the county, and is most eligibly located; being directly on the North West branch of Langford's Bay, which is navigable for our largest class grain vessels and lime boats, and convenient to places of Public Worship, schools, &c. It contains about

560 ACRES,

some FIFTY ACRES of which is in TIMBER and WOOD.

It will admit of an advantageous division into two parts, and will be so divided as to give to each part a

DWELLING

and the necessary

OUT-BUILDINGS.

On the lower part there is a very SUPERIOR BARN, and a fine

APPLE ORCHARD,

and on the upper part the Buildings are good and all of them nearly now.

The division line will be so drawn as to throw to each part an ample supply of TIMBER AND FUEL, and also one or more good Landings.

The Water is generally excellent, and on the upper Farm there is a fine mineral spring.

The soil is naturally good; a large portion of which will bear a favorable comparison with the best in the County. It has had one or two dressings of lime.

THE TERMS OF SALE.

The Decree prescribes the following terms of sale: One-fourth of the purchase money to be paid cash on the day of sale or on the final ratification thereof; the residue in three equal instalments of one, two and three years from the day of sale, with interest from that date. The future payments to be secured by the notes or bonds of the purchaser or purchasers, with security approved by the Trustees.

GEORGE VICKERS,
RICHARD HYNSON,

Chestertown, Nov. 5, 1864—ts.

N. B.—The Creditors of the late Isaac Gale, are hereby notified and requested to file their claims, properly autenticated, with the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Kent county, within four months from the day of sale.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

BY virtue of a Decree of the Circuit Court for Kent county, sitting in Equity, the undersigned as Trustee, will sell at Public Sale at the Voshell House, in Chestertown, Md., at 11 o'clock, A. M., the Real Estate of the late George Copper, consisting of a FARM and several detached WOOD LOTS.

On TUESDAY, the 29th Nov. 1864,

THE FARM

lies in East Neck, near the Ferry Bridge, and on Church Creek. It adjoins the lands of Richard B. and Daniel C. Wilson, and nearly all arable. The natural condition of the soil is equal to the best in the county, being of that class of soils which responds promptly and profitably to the application of lime, guano, and its various combinations.

Contains about 140 Acres,

The location of this Farm is highly desirable. It lies within a few miles of the steamboat landing on Gray's Inn Creek, and is convenient to places of public worship and schools, and within easy access to the finest Oyster Beds, Ducking Points, and Fishing Grounds on Chester River and the Bay.

To any one who desires to enjoy the luxuries of our Waters with little labor and expense, and at the same time the comforts and profits of an estate, equally well adapted to grain, grass, fruits and vegetables, this Farm offers rare inducements to purchase.

The IMPROVEMENTS are a DWELLING and the usual Out-Buildings.

One of the detached Lots

Contains about SIXTY ACRES, and adjoins the lands of L. G. Maslin. There are TWO OTHER LOTS, each containing about EIGHT ACRES. One adjoins the lands of Mr. John Judefind, and the other the property of Mr. Dennis Vickers. These Lots are well Wooded, and there is some fine Timber upon them. They will be sold separately.

THE TERMS OF SALE, as prescribed by the Decree, are as follows: The one-third part of the purchase money to be paid cash on the day of sale, or on the final ratification thereof; and the residue in two equal instalments of twelve and eighteen months from the day of sale, with interest from that day.
