Taste

—that's what tells the tale as to whether we like or dislike any certain kind of food or drink. A beverage may please the eye—we may talk about it—or hear about it—but we really can't appreciate it until the sense of TASTE has passed its critical judgment

Red Seal
"IT HAS THE SNAP"

is a wholesome, healthful cereal beverage, of superior quality and distinctive flavor. We could keep on telling you of its excellence, its good-health properties and its uses forever, but, until you actually open your first cold bottle and put it to the test of TASTE you never will know anything about it.

RED SEAL is especially appropriate with food—it sharpens the appetite and aids the digestion—you'll thoroughly enjoy a cold bottle with your meal this evening or with sandwiches just before retiring. Obey that impulse—TASTE RED SEAL TODAY—

Your grocer or dealer can supply you—or phone the Wholesale Distributors.

Dr. Hess Stock Tonic
A Spring Conditioner and Worm Expeller

Spring Is Here. Soon the litters of pigs will be coming, the calves, the lambs, and the colts will be dropped. Feed your brood sows Dr. Hess Stock Tonic before and after farrowing. It makes the bowels active, relieves constipation, promotes good health and good digestion which means healthy pigs and a mother with a milk supply to nourish.

Condition your cows for calving by feeding Dr. Hess Stock Tonic before freshing. Then feed it regularly to increase the flow of milk. It lengthens the milking period.

Give your brood mares a course of Dr. Hess Stock Tonic. And your work horses. It puts your team in fine fettle. You cannot afford to plow, harrow, sow, mow, reap or team with a team out of sorts, low in spirits, rough in hair, blood out of order, or full of worms. Dr. Hess Stock Tonic is good for sheep—especially good for ewes at lambing time.

The Retailer's Invitation

This is my home, here where you come to buy
My business home, you are my guest, and I
Your cordial host. Let not alone the crade
Possess your thoughts. In you I hope I've made
A lasting friend; and that if you recall
This little visit and our deal at all,
It may be only as the means we found
To meet and mingle on a common ground.

This is my house, thrown open to my guests,
While I with joy comply with their requests.
Daily I hold reception, eight to six,
Striving to please the ones with whom I mix,
Hoping to fill each several, varying need
With courtesy devoid of sordid greed.
The thought of "getting" I would put away
And concentrate on "giving" all the day.

This is the house my business built for you
To visit; and if my house can do
A service for my valued list of friends
It will have served my fondly-wished-for ends.
Forget that you are "patron" or that I
Am called a "dealer," as the days go by
Let neighborly relationship prevail,
And this, my home and yours, can never fail.
