ABILITY OF THE SOUTH TO PAY.

It is a notable fact that the south does not, after all, appear to be so impoverished as had been made to appear. Destitute of all the comforts of civilized life it undoubtedly was; but as always happens in war, the people seem to have converted all they could into specie, and concealed that from the rebel government as carefully as from the soldiers of the contending armies. There is no other way than this of accounting for the sums of money brought north by southern merchants to pay old debts and to buy goods. Indeed, some of them admit the fact to be as we have stated. Being unable to obtain merchandise, the people mostly lived in the plainest possible style, wearing homespun clothes, and being at hardly any expense. This was in the interior. In the cities, the blockade running and the war contracts and salaries produced a different style of living.

As a consequence of this state of things, the work of recuperation proceeds faster than has been generally supposed. The railroads and canals are all being put in working order, the hotels are reopening, the ruined cities are being rebuilt, and the steamboat lines are again plying upon the southern rivers, while the cultivation of the crops has proceeded regularly, and those already harvested have paid well.—The southern banking system is about destroyed, but many of the old commercial houses survive in good condition, and the factories are being repaired, refurnished with machinery and set in motion again. The best proof of the improving condition of the south, in addition to what we have already said respecting the cash payments, is found in the working of the internal revenue system where it has been established at the south.

THE FENIAN MOVEMENT IN IRELAND.—The British government, it appears, are about taking strong measures to repress the advance and working of Fenianism in Ireland, and the plan for doing this was to be speedily announced. It will probably assume the old form of a Coercion bill, with the old punishments by the gibbet, transportation, or imprisonment. The London Daily News, in an editorial on the subject, says:

"The Fenian movement is confined chiefly to laborers, idlers and wanderers of low degree. The intelligence of the country, and above all the Catholic clergy, is on the side of order. It will soon appear what the Government intends to do. It is clear there is no time to be lost.—There will be no question on either side of the Irish channel of putting down this movement. As a work of mercy it must be done. There must be prompt, careful and complete prevention and repression of the rebellion, whether weak or formidable. It would be a great mercy to Ireland if every Fenian leader were at once put on trial."

AFFAIRS AT RICHMOND.—A sad affair occured at Richmond on Saturday night. It appears that Mr. John Perkins during the night was awakened by his wife, who said she thought there was a burglar in the house. Mr. P. searched the premises, but finding no intruder, retired to bed, and was soon asleep. Subsequently his wife had occasion, to go to another room, and her movements on her return to bed awakening him a second time, he jumped up, and supposing her to be a burglar, fired a pistol and shot her dead. On discovering his sad mistake, he became almost bereft of reason.

On Friday night R. H. Meade, formerly of Alexandria, was shot and dangerously wounded by Mrs. Isabel Ould. His refusal to marry her is the alleged cause.

John A. Iowen, of Baltimore, formerly connected with the Southern Express Company, has been appointed agent of Reid's Southern Express South from Richmond.

The Richmond Republic announces that the President has countermanded that clause in his proclamation for the restoration of civil government in Virginia which induced the Attorney General to proceed with libels of confiscation, by an order forbidding any new libels to be instituted "until further orders."

VICE PRESIDENT STEPHENS.—Some of the friends of Alexander H. Stephens are making efforts to obtain his release from Fort Warren upon parole. His health, always delicate, it is thought will be injuriously affected by confinement during the cold season. It is also argued that his great personal popularity with the class of men in Georgia now engaged in restoring that State to the Union will materially aid that object. Should Mr. Stephens be allowed to go South we have no doubt his presence would be very beneficial to the Union cause there. Since the release of R. M. T. Hunter from Fort Pulaski it seems hardly necessary that Mr. Stephens should be longer kept in confinement.—Boston Transcript.

A NEW ATLANTIC CABLE.—The Atlantic Telegraph Company has virtually abandoned the cable, in order to begin the enterprise anew. An official notice is published to the effect that no attempt will be made to recover the lost wire, but that the Great Eastern will be refitted to enable her to take in a new cable in May or June of next year, When the new line is laid an attempt will be made to fish up the present one. The English journals are confident that the next effort to establish ocean telegraphic communication will be successful, as the repeated failures hitherto have served to point out defects which are believed to be remediable.

RAVAGES OF THE CHOLERA.—The State Department at Washington is in receipt of voluminous dispatches from our Consuls at Constantinople, Smyrna, Port Mahon, and Barcelona, giving further information of the ravages of the cholera in various parts of Europe. The reports from Constantinople are most alarming, the deaths from this disease having reached the number of two thousand per day. Several American missionaries are among the victims.

A NEW RELIGIOUS MOVEMENT.—A singular religious movement was begun in England a few weeks ago. It is proposed to unite the members of the English, Roman Catholic and Greek churches in friendly communion, and the public journals report that three hundred churches in England have assented to the measure. The institution is formed under the title of "The Association for the Promotion of the Unity of Christendom," to unite in a bond of intercessory prayer among members. They are not asked to compromise any principles which they, rightly or wrongly, hold dear; they are simply asked to unite for the promotion of a high and holy end. The names of members are to be kept strictly private, and the only obligation imposed upon those who join the association is the daily use of a short form of prayer, to which is added, in the case of priests, the offering, at least once in three months, of the Holy Sacrifice.

SCARCITY OF LABOR ON THE EASTERN SHORE.—Owing to the scarcity of laboring hands of all classes on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, the planters are making an effort to secure the services of several hundred families of freedmen. On Friday, application was made to the Freedmen's Bureau for its assistance in the matter.—The Bureau intends furnishing immediately twenty-five families for one locality alone on the Shore.—Wash. Star.

A NEGRO SERVANT ATTEMPTS TO DROWN A WHITE CHILD.—A negro servant in the employ of Mr. James Bland, of this town, attempted to drown a little daughter of Mr. B on Friday last by placing her in a tub of water. Fortunately, Mrs. Bland heard the child struggling, and ran to its assistance, finding it nearly strangled, and the negro standing within a few feet of it, apparently ignorant of what had happened. The same negro attempted to fire Mr. B's residence last winter.—Cent. Observer.

TAX-PAYERS
TAKE NOTICE!

THE STATE AND COUNTY TAXES FOR 1865, including the Bounty and Public School tax, are now due, and the undersigned Collector for the Second Tax District of Kent county, hereby gives notice that the tax books are in his hands, and the amounts due by the tax-payers are made out, and he is ready to receive them. He most respectfully solicits prompt payment, as the demands upon the Collector for this year, both by the State and county, will not permit indulgence as heretofore.

If tax-payers desired, there would be no difficulty in promptly settling their taxes annually, but neglect of duty is often the cause of expense, which in many cases exceed the tax itself. The demands of the State this year, however, must of necessity be met more promptly than heretofore, and the wants of those who have claims against the County will compel the collector to be more rigid in his collections. He hopes, however, that the Tax-Payers will be prompt in their payments and thus avoid the penalty for neglect of duty.

☞ A discount of five per cent. will be allowed on all State Tax paid on or before the first day of September; four per cent. if paid on or before the first day of October; and three per cent. if paid on or before the first day of November, 1865.

For the convenience of Tax-Payers I will be at the office of Henry W. Earnest, Esq., in Chestertown, every TUESDAY, THURSDAY, and SATURDAY.

Being Collector, by law, of the Corporation Tax of Chestertown, it will be necessary for me to receive these taxes at once, on account of the immediate and pressing wants of the town.
