

following letter;

Office of Board of Police Commissioners

October 3rd 1867

To,

Capt. Wm. H. Capell,
Western District.

The Board of Police Commissioners in accepting your resignation as Captain of the Western District desire to testify their appreciation of you as an officer and a gentleman by placing on the records of this Office their regrets at your retirement from the force. Your conduct and efficiency as an officer has at all times commended our unqualified approbation and we will know that in your new sphere of duties as an officer of the United States Post, the Post Commissioners have selected a gentleman of unblemished reputation and peculiar fitness. You will carry with you our best wishes for your future success.

Very respectfully

S. Janette

President.
