WARNING

Several months ago through advertisements in your local papers, we warned the public against the indiscriminate purchase of securities particularly oil stocks, without first carefully investigating the merits of such securities.

OUR WARNING was doubtless accepted by some; others are now wiser BUT POORER.

Within the last year or so, the investing public of the nine counties on the Eastern Shore of Maryland alone, have invested hundreds of thousands of dollars in stocks, mostly unlisted, which now have little or no value. This class of stock generally represented promoters' profit, rather than value, and were fundamentally unsound at the outset.

Such securities are still BEING OFFERED TO YOU, and we again call your attention to the advisability of careful investigation before investing.

Are You

Investing Your Money Safely?

A number of high grade Preferred Stocks of the largest corporations in this Country are selling on the New York Stock Exchange at prices to yield from 7½ per cent to 9 per cent.

Are the Preferred Stocks you are buying yielding you that much with safety?

Are they the obligation of companies doing a healthy business and managed by successful business men?

Are they listed on some recognized Stock Exchange where you can sell them if you so desire?

Do you know that the assets behind the Preferred Stock, and the earning ability of the Company, are such as to make it a preferred Stock in reality, rather than in name?

Does the Company publish a balance sheet and regular reports of its earnings?

Do you know that the concern from whom you are buying is responsible, and is advising you honestly, and is not making an unreasonable profit on their sales?

Do you know that your securities are good collateral with your Bank, or Banker, for a collateral loan? (This is very important).

General Motors 6 per cent Debenture Preferred Stock, selling at $71 per share, yielding 8½, callable at $115 per share, is a strong Preferred Stock. This Company in size, ranks next to the billion dollar United States Steel Corporation and is controlled by the Duponts, of Wilmington. There is no bonded debt ahead if this Preferred Stock and the Common Stock behind it is selling in the open market for more than $300,000,000. It is also tied up by strong protective provisions. Our charge for buying, or selling, is fifteen cents per share.

We have in mind several other high grade Preferred Stocks which we would be glad to advise with you about, if interested.

Stroheim's Wonder-Play

"Blind Husbands" To Be Shown At Lyceum Theatre Next Friday And Saturday

What is perhaps the most awe inspiring scenery ever recorded by the motion picture camera is seen in "Blind Husbands," the Universal photodrama of the Tyrolean Alps, which comes on Friday and Saturday of this week to the Lyceum Theatre.

The photodrama stars Eric Stroheim, formerly of the Austrian army, in the role that will add to the hatred aroused by his part of the brutish Hun officer in "The Heart of Humanity."

Stroheim depicts the role of Lieutenant von Steuben of the Austrian army. He goes to a fashionable Alpine resort to prey on all womankind.

Through suave mock courtesy and strictest attention to her smallest want he breaks down the barrier of her reserve and leads her into a mild flirtation.

FRANCELIA BILLINGTON IN THE UNIVERSAL-JEWEL PRODUCTION "BLIND HUSBANDS"

Failing to ruin the life of a beautiful American girl although he nearly accomplishes his vile purpose, von Steuben directs his attention to the humble girls of the Alpine village and brands their simple souls with his hot passion.

His downfall comes when he launches his puny strength against the might of the eternal mountains.

Supporting Stroheim is the beautiful Francelia Billington and the following cast of widely known Universal players, Sam DeGrasse, H. Gibson-Gowland, Valerie Germonprez and Jack Perrin.

"Blind Husbands" presents a never-to-be-forgotten contrast of the quiet majesty of the mountains with the baseness of human desires.
