IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of my dear husband, ANDREW J. TAYLOR who died one year ago, January 2nd, 1913.

Oh how sudden was the summons,
But the message came too late;
Time was too short to say farewell
To him we loved so well.

How sad this day one year ago,
When my dear husband died;
How sad my home without you
Words can never describe.

As I sit alone and gaze
Upon that empty chair
And memory brings me back to days
When my dear husband sat there.
BY HIS LOVING WIFE AND SON JESSE.

Friends may think we will soon forget you,
father, dear,
And our wounded hearts be healed:
But they little know the sorrow,
That's within our hearts concealed.
BY HIS DAUGHTER ANGIE.

Somers, deceased, and all of whom are prayed to be proceeded against as non residents of the State of Maryland, whether residents or non-residents of said State by order of Publication as against non-residents.

It is thereupon this 29th day of December A. D., 1913, ordered by the Circuit Court of Kent county, in Equity, that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent county, once in each of four successive weeks before the 2nd day of February, A. D., 1914, give notice to the said non-resident defendants, Lillie Lawrence and Harry Lawrence, as above entitled whether residents or non-residents of the State of Maryland and the unknown heirs of the said John D. Somers, residents or non-residents of the State of Maryland, warning them to appear in this Court in person or by Solicitor on or before the 20th day of February, A.
