LOCAL NOTES

WOOL is bringing 24½ cents in some sections of Kent.

THE roads of Kent are reported by automobilists to be in good shape.

THE Frank Roeder house in Kennedyville has been sold to Mr. Finley Thawley.

DID you ever see such a profusion of roses! Kent is a veritable rose garden, with carpet of velvety green.

THIS has been clean-up week in Chestertown and Superintendent Miller has hauled away enough dirt to fill a cave.

A SPECIAL Decoration Day excursion Monday, May 31, will be made to Baltimore by the Tolchester Co. See adv. in another column.

R. H. COLLINS has purchased of Clinton W. Wroth his building lot on Front street, adjoining the homes of Allan A. Harris and Benj. Brown.

MR. BAUERCAMPER has purchased A. S. Turner's interest in the farm implement business near the depot, and will run the business himself in the future.

CHESTERTOWN and Easton will play a great game at the Fair grounds next Monday, May 24th. Home Run Baker, of the Athletics, will play third for Easton.

AN executive meeting of the Kent County W. C. T. U. is called for Wednesday, May 26, at 10 o'clock a. m. in the Rest Room of The Federated Club. A full attendance is desired.

DAVIS & SATTERFIELD have sold to the Smith brothers, of lower Kent, three pumping outfits, consisting of gasoline engines, tanks, &c., which have been erected on each of their three farms.

A SOCIAL tea was held at the home of Mr. J. H. Clendaniel, near Kennedyville, Thursday, from 5 to 9. Strawberries, ice-cream and other delicacies were served. Proceeds for benefit of church.

THE fire alarm quickly brought out the local company Monday afternoon at six o'clock. The fire was in one of I. B. Russell's small houses on Cannon street, and was extinguished without much damage.

A JOINT meeting of the Kent and Queen Anne's county commissioners was held at Millington Monday, and it was decided to build a new cement bridge to connect the two counties. This is a needed improvement. It will cost about $8,000.

THE county commissioners have sent to the State Tax Commission the following five names from which to select a successor to Mr. Harry J. McWhorter: Thomas J. Donahoe, Henry Hendricks, Harry E. Taylor, J. Frank Connelly, Hugh McCloskey. This appointment will likely be made next week.

J. P. PARROTT had the first spring chickens in market last week, weighing [illegible]unds. These early birds are [illegible] at 30 cents per pound. Soft [illegible] appeared this week at 50 cents per [illegible]. What a feast the Eastern Shore[illegible] have! Spring chicken, soft crabs, [illegible] cream and strawberries!

THREE busses passed through town Tuesday filled with 20 insane people on the way to the sanatorium at Cambridge. They were removed from Cecil. Over 200 were brought to the new asylum from Baltimore. One of them jumped off the boat and came near drowning. They were safely housed in the new building at Cambridge.

THE Delaware authorities are severe on certain kinds of offenses, among which is desertion. On Tuesday last a young resident of Chestertown was carried to Delaware and arraigned in the municipal court charged with failing to observe the order of the court to contribute to the support of his child. Following a hearing he was sentenced to serve six months in the New Castle county workhouse, to pay a fine of $100 and to pay the costs of prosecution, including the costs of extradition. It looks like a very severe sentence under the circumstances.

THE Queen Anne county W. C. T. U. will hold its convention at Crumpton on June 3rd and extends a cordial invitation to members of Kent county Union to meet with them.—Press Supt.

THE beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard was the scene of a notable function Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Hubbard entertained the members of the Maryland Line Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, at luncheon following the general meeting, which took place in the morning at her home. Mrs. William B. Hurst invited the members to go down on her yacht, which left early Wednesday morning and returned in the late afternoon. The officers of the chapter included: Regent, Mrs. Oscar Leser; vice-regent, Mrs. Townsend Scott; recording secretary, Mrs. Claude H. Hall; treasurer, Miss Rose Duer; register, Miss Susan P. Groverman, and historian, Miss Jane G. Keys. The board is composed of Mrs. Leonidas Levering, Mrs. Michael B. Wild, Mrs. Lily Tyson Elliott, Mrs. Matthew Gault and Mrs. William B. Hu[illegible]

STATE'S PRETTIEST GIRL IS SELECTED

Miss Clara M. McAbee, of Frederick county, has been selected from among nearly 900 pretty girls of the State as the prettiest in Maryland.

Her photograph was among the large number submitted to the Baltimore Evening News in a Beauty Contest, the prize for which is to be a trip to the Panama-Pacific Exposition and other points in the great West.

The photographs were of young ladies from throughout Baltimore City and from all over the State. The News secured the services of five prominent citizens of Baltimore as judges. The judges inspected all the photographs and eliminated all but 20, among whom was Miss Minnye Sachs, of Chestertown. Invitations were sent by The News to the young ladies so determined upon to a tea at the Hotel Stafford, where they met the judges. The latter, after much deliberation, decided upon Miss McAbee. She will leave for California June 3rd.

Mr. John R. Ernest, of Sassafras, Md., son of John F. Ernest, and Miss Mildred K. Brown, of New York City, were quietly married in Chestertown on Friday morning of last week by Rev. H. D. Martin. They will reside at Sassafras, where the groom is engaged in the mercantile business.

STAM DRUG CO.
Chestertown, - Maryland

We know you like good, pure Ice-Cream, and you should do so

Pure Ice Cream! Has the thought ever entered your mind, while enjoying a plate of cream, under what conditions it was manufactured?

Did you ever investigate the plant in which the cream you have been in the habit of buying is made?

Do you appreciate the fact that there are different qualities of Ice Cream sold at exactly the same price that good, pure cream can be obtained for?

To produce absolutely pure, wholesome Ice Cream, the manufacturing plant and general conditions must be sanitary from the foundation. Cleanliness must be the watchword. Good material the substance. Careful and clean help in attendance.

Ice Cream is a Pure Food Product—a Wholesome Product—an Appetizing Product—if you know that is manufactured under absolute cleanly conditions.

Ice Cream manufactured by the Chestertown Candy Kitchen at their establishment on the corner of High and Cross Streets, is made under strict sanitary conditions, from the best products the markets afford, and cost you no more than the inferior grades sold elsewhere.

The Chestertown Candy Kitchen solicits your business for home use. They serve the family trade as well as dispense their Pure Ice Cream and Fancy Ices in boxes or packed. Soda Waters, Fancy Sundaes, etc., at their store at High and Cross Streets.
