

Navy of the United States to have free passage through the streets of Baltimore at any time. The Officers and crew of the Force are further ordered to facilitate such transit at all times within the sphere of their respective duties.

By order of the Board
Seymour Janette
President of the Board

The following letter was directed by the Board to be placed on the Records of the Office.

Head Quarters 1st Division Md. Nat. Guard
No. 31 North Calvert St.
Baltimore, October 19th 1867

S. Janette Esqr.
President Board of Police

My dear Sir,

Permit me to offer you and through you to Marshal Farlow and the Officers under his Command my thanks and obligation for the prompt manner in which you acceded to my request of the 12th inst. relative to the parade of the First Division Maryland National Guard and the Excellent way in which everything was carried out.

The success of the parade depending on you all, I can but Express my gratification of the same.

I am Sir,

Very respectfully
Your Most Obedient Servant
Maj. Genl. 1st Div. M. N. G.

This letter was likewise directed to be placed on the Records of the Office

Court of Common Pleas
October 21st 1867

Board Police Court
Genl

As I was near enough to the