ROCK[illegible]LL

Mrs. Alexander, [illegible]as under treatment here for imp[illegible] health, went to the city last week [illegible] the dread of a hospital on her mind. Fortunately, when arriving at her daughter's (Mrs M. Kramer) h me, where she became helpless, a doctor was called in, who diagnosed her ailment to be lumbago and soon relieved her. She is now greatly improved, but will stay at her daughter's home until her strength is restored, when she will return to Rock Hall.

Mrs. O. P. Leary returned from the Seventh Day Adventist sanatorium, in Baltimore last week, very much improved. She makes flattering report of the treatment and kindly attention given her at the institution. It was more like being at home than in a public institution. Little or no "red tape" regarding the visits of relatives and friends is used by the management.

Mrs. Levy and son, of Baltimore, are guests of relatives here and grandaddy has no time for the blues.

Much mystery has been on tap regarding the missing of one of our lady residents for several weeks. The premises of the lady have been thoroughly searched, but to no avail. Her commission merchant was appealed to for information concerning her, and he replied the lady was in New York and advised a neighbor to look out for the missing woman's effects.

An ocular demonstration was had here on Saturday last of the great advantage the cut-off channel is to the commerce of this place. The three-masted schooner "Robin," which landed a cargo of stone for the new high school building, departed on Saturday, going out through the cut off, thus saving miles of run and hours of time. Our U. S. Senator and Congressmen made no mistake in getting this place on the map for harbor improvement.

EDITORS KENT NEWS, Chestertown, Md.

Gentlemen—The item in your paper of 15th inst. under locals concerning the publication of bids of Betterton school is very misleading and does an injustice to our committee. In the first place it gives the impression that Mr. Culp was really our lowest bidder, and secondly it adds that there were but a few hundred dollars between the bids of Mr. Culp and Mr. Lane. Both of these statements are very wrong. Mr. Culp's bids of $8,432 and Mr. Lane's of $6,525, which was accepted by us, are covered by identically the same original specifications and plans without any alterations except those made necessary by substitution of steam heat for hot air and this is only slightly changing position of basement walls to suit boiler instead of furnace. Mr. Culp also figured steam heat. In justice to our committee and other parties concerned we will thank you to publish above statement.

Very respectfully,
ARTHUR H. BRICE, Chairman,
Betterton School Commission.

IN MEMORIAM.

To the memory of our love one, Mrs. Josephene Taylor, who departed this life six years ago, May 17, 1909.

A precious one from me has gone,
A voice I love is still,
A place is vacant in my home,
Which never can be filled.

HUSBAND.

Dearest mother, how we miss you,
Here on earth no tongue can tell,
But in heaven we hope to meet you
And with you forever to dwell.

CHILDREN.

Dearest daughter, we have laid thee
In thy peaceful grave's embrace;
But your memory will be cherished
Until I see thy heavenly face.

GRANGE NOTES.

Fairlee Grange held a very interesting meeting Wednesday afternoon and evening. It being the last special meeting of the season. Several visitors were present who entertained us by some very interesting talks. Miss Pritchard gave us a delightful haf-hour on Home Economies. Miss Anna Smyth, of Chestertown, treated us to a solo.

The Grange Garner, read by a mere man, Dr. F. W. Smith, was greatly enjoyed being full of spice and all things nice. Mrs Walker, of Church Hill Grange, told us how she raises her incubator chickens, and with proper attention how healthy they are. Miss Ida Crew gave one of her choice selections "A P rfect Day." This was followed by a talk from Mr. Walker, of Church Hill Grange, telling how invaluable he Demonstrator is to Queen Annes county. This closed our festal season, but we look forward to the fall when we recommence and we hope to continue with the good work.

JOHN D. URIE, ATTORNEY.
