MISS SACHS GETS $1,500

A Chestertown Girl Wins Verdict Against Joseph Goldstein For Breach Of Promise.

The damage to Miss Lillian M. Sachs' feelings when her sweetheart "Joe" Goldstein, broke their engagement was $1,500, Judge Gorter determined in court Tuesday afternoon.

Ideals of beauty, as considered on the Eastern Shore and in Baltimore City, were contrasted in the closing day of the trial.

The question arose when one of the witnesses was asked the following, by Hope H. Barroll, counsel for Miss Sachs. "Didn't Goldstein say that Miss Sachs was too pretty a girl to be raised in Chestertown, where her charmms would be wasted on the desert air; that he thought she ought to be taken to the big city, to take of her proper place among the beauties of the metropolis?" or words to that effect.

Before the witness could answer there was a audible sniff from the section of the room where the spectators from the "Shore" were seated.

Mr. Barroll hastened to add that he at least meant no reflection upon Chestertown by the question, but that he wanted to know whether the statement had been made.

The witness could not remember ever having heard Goldstein make the remark.

"At least he hod nothing against Chestertown," said one of the lawyers.

There were all sorts of tragic possibilities in the Goldstein-Sachs match which failed when MissSachs said she was jilted. In the first place, "Joe's" letters indicated that he would be miserable, or that he could not live without her, while she was afraid to run off and get married to him without the knowledge of her parents, because she feared it might kill her mother, while Joe's brother, Walter, said the proposed elopment had seriously interfered with his life-long ambition to begin a course of engineering in New York. He testified that he had looked forward to that course in New York, but had to stay home because brother "Joe" wanted to go through with his wedding plans.—Sun.

The costs of the case are to be assessed upon Goldstein. Before announcing his decision, Judge Gorter briefly reviewed the testimony given at the trial, and took occasion to say that a most gratifying feature of this testimony had been that, contrary to the rules of breach-of-promise suits, it had developed not a single fact that bordered on scandal or impropriety of any kind.

tors, Leinors, Assigns and persons evidently a devoted daughter. On the other hand, she was sincerely in love with young Goldstein, as he was with her. It was the wish of Miss Sachs to be married at Chestertown, where her family and all her friends lived, and her determination to have the wedding take place there instead of in Baltimore, as Mr. Goldstein wished, did not vitiate the latter's matrimonial agreement."

LIFE WAS A MISERY TO HER

Says this Woman Until Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Carrollton, Ky.—"I suffered almost two years with female weakness. I could not walk any distance, ride or take any exercise at all without resting. If I swept the floor or did any kind of work it would bring my sickness on. I was weak and languid, had no energy, and life was a misery to me. I was under the care of a good physician for several months and tried other remedies. I had read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. After taking twelve bottles I found myself much improved and I took six more. I have never had any more trouble in that respect since. I have done all kinds of work and at present am an attendant at a State Hospital and am feeling fine. I have recommended your Vegetable Compound to dozens of my friends and shall always recommend it."—LILLIAN THARP, 824 S. 6th St., Carrollton, Ky.

If you have any symptoms about which you would like to know write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for helpful advice given free of charge.

FOR HEADACHE, LIVER TROUBLE

Black-Draught Is The Best Medicine This Lady Ever Used. Says It Is Only Medicine She Gives Her Children.

Cherry Village, Ark.—In telling of her experience with Thedford's Black-Draught, Mrs. Lottie Ellis, R. F. D. No. 1, this place, said: "I used Black-Draught as a laxative, also for headache, torpid liver and indigestion. It is the best liver medicine I have ever used and is the only medicine I give my children.

"I feel like it has saved me a lot in doctors' bills, for when the children complain of feeling bad or have a cold, I just give them a good dose of Black-Draught and they soon get all right. It certainly cleans the liver and clears up the skin and they are soon out, well again. I wouldn't be without it for anything."

Seventy years of successful use has made Thedford's Black-Draught a standard, household remedy. Every member, of every family, needs, at times, the benefit that Black-Draught gives in helping to cleanse the system and to prevent or relieve the troubles that come from constipation, indigestion, and a lazy liver.

To keep well, your stomach, liver and bowels must be in good working order. To help keep them that way, take occasional doses of Thedford's Black-Draught. Thousands of homes are never without it.
